

No. 281.

AN ACT

For the alteration in the charter of the First Presbyterian church of Manayunk.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, In the year eighteen hundred and thirty-three, a number of individuals, citizens of this commonwealth, were created into a body politic and corporate, by the name, style and title of "the First Presbyterian church of Manayunk:"

And whereas, The members of said body politic and corporate, for various good and sufficient reasons, are desirous of changing the ninth article of their charter, so as to give the majority of the members of said church the use, control and disposal of the building and property of said church, instead of having it at the disposal of the session thereof; therefore,

Trustees to have the control of church, &c.

Proviso.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That nothing in the ninth section of the charter of the First Presbyterian church of Manayunk, shall be construed as depriving the board of trustees of the entire control of the church building and the temporal concerns of said church: Provided, That all the acts of said trustees, shall be in conformity to the rules and principles of the Presbyterian church in the United States of America, and not in anywise inconsistent with the same.

JAMES COOPER,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

CH. GIBBONS,

Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The thirteenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven.
