AN ACT

For the relief of James W. Guthrie.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, James W. Guthrie, of Clarion county, Pennsylvania, did, on the twentieth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, apply for a warrant for four hundred acres of land, situate in Ridgeway township, Jefferson county, on account of which he paid into the treasury of Pennsylvania one hundred and eleven dollars and seventeen cents, as per receipt, dated February twentieth, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, signed by the honorable Daniel Sturgeon, state treasurer:

And whereas, The said warrant was, by mistake, located by the deputy surveyor of Jefferson county, on land then already warranted and appropriated; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the secretary of the land office be and he is hereby authorized and directed, to place to the credit of James W. Guthrie, the sum of one hundred and eleven dollars and seventeen cents, being the amount paid into the treasury office, and receipted for as above stated, for which sum the said secretary shall grant and issue a warrant or warrants on other unappropriated lands or patents, as the said James W. Guthrie may desire, until the said amount of one hundred and eleven dollars and seventeen cents is satisfied.

Secretary of land office to place a certain sum of money to credit of J. W. Guthrie.

JAMES COOPER,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

WM. WILLIAMSON,

Speaker of the Senate.
