AN ACT

To open an alley in the borough of Brookville, Jefferson county.

Commissioners. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That Hugh Brady, James Corlies and John Gallaher, of the borough of Brookville, Jefferson county, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners to view and lay out a public alley from Red Bank creek, south of the south-west corner of lot, No. 22, along the west side of said lot, as also along the west side of lots, No. 1, 48, 49, 98, 99 and 5, and running parallel with Bennet street, in said borough, to Church street, in said borough.

To lay out a public alley in borough of Brookville.

Duties.

SECTION 2. It shall be the duty of the said board of commissioners, or a majority of them, after taking and subscribing an oath or affirmation before a justice of the peace, to perform the duties enjoined upon them by this act, with impartiality and fidelity, to carefully view the ground over which said alley may pass, and lay out the same in a straight line.

Further duties.

SECTION 3. It shall be the duty of said commissioners plainly and distinctly to mark the ground agreed upon for the said alley, in such a manner as to enable the street commissioners readily to find the same. Said commissioners, respectively, shall receive a per diem allowance not exceeding one dollar and fifty cents each for every day necessarily expended in the duties enjoined by this act; and said commissioner, performing the duties of surveyor, shall have and receive an additional compensation of one dollar per day for each and every day spent in laying out of said alley, to be paid in manner and form as hereinafter directed.

SECTION 4. It shall be the duty of said commissioners to make out a fair and accurate draft of the location of said alley, respectively noting thereon the courses and distances as they occur; also, the crossing of the other streets and alleys, with such other matters as may serve for explanation; one copy whereof shall be deposited in the office of the clerk of the court of the said county, on or before the first day of August next, or as much sooner as practicable, which shall be a record thereof: and from thenceforth the said alley shall be to all intents and purposes a public highway, and shall be opened to the breadth of twenty feet, and repaired in all respects as the other streets and alleys of said borough. Draft.

SECTION 5. That the accounts of said commissioners, for their pay, shall be made out and returned to the town council of said borough, according to the time spent in locating said alley; and that they be paid out of the borough treasury, on warrants drawn the usual way. Accounts, how settled and paid.

SECTION 6. That the said commissioners shall meet on or before the first Monday of May next, or as soon thereafter as practicable, and complete the view of said alley; and if any vacancy occur, the court of quarter sessions of the county shall supply, by the appointment of suitable persons, who shall perform said duty. Time of meeting. Vacancies, how supplied.

WILLIAM F. PACKER,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

WM. WILLIAMSON,
Speaker of the Senate.
