

No. 259.

AN ACT

To provide for the erection of a house for the employment and support of the poor of Blair county.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That David Caldwell, Samuel Smith, Nicholas Hewit, John Hemphill, Charles Wilson, William Reed, John M'Kennan, Archabald M'Callister, Isaac Rhoads, James A. M'Cahen, Valentine Lingafelter, John Miller, John Hutchison, John Crotzer and Armstrong Crawford, be and are hereby appointed commissioners, whose duty it shall be, or a majority of them, on or before the first day of May, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, to determine upon and purchase such real estate as they shall deem necessary, for the accommodation of the poor of Blair county; such real estate to be situated within eight miles of the county seat of the said county of Blair; and it shall be lawful for said commissioners, or a majority of them, to take conveyances therefor, in the name and for the use of the corporation mentioned in the third section of this act; and they shall certify their proceedings therein, under their hands and seals, to the clerk of the court of quarter sessions of Blair county, to be filed in his office; and at the next general election the qualified electors shall elect three reputable citizens of the said county, to be directors of the poor and of the house of employment for the county of Blair; and the judges of the election of said county shall, immediately on receiving the returns from the several election districts, and casting up the number of votes therein, or within three days thereafter, certify, under their hands and seals, the names of the persons so elected directors, to the clerk of the court of quarter sessions of the said county, who shall file the said certificate in his office, and forthwith give notice, in writing, to the said directors of their being elected; and the said directors shall meet at the court house in the said county, on the first Monday of November next ensuing their election, and divide themselves, by lot, into three classes; the place of the first to be vacated at the expiration of the first year, of the second at the expiration of the second year, of the third at the expiration of the third year, so that those who shall be chosen after the first election, and in the mode above described, may serve for three years, and one-third may be chosen annually.

or shall be by law recoverable; and the directors, qualified as aforesaid, are hereby authorized to administer an oath or affirmation in any case, when it shall be necessary, in relation to the duties of their office.

SECTION 3. The said directors shall, forever hereafter, in name and in fact, be one body politic and corporate in law, to all intents and purposes whatsoever, relative to the poor of the county of Blair; and shall have perpetual succession, and may sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, by the name, style and title of the Directors of the poor and of the house of employment for the county of Blair; and by that name shall and may receive, take and hold any lands, tenements and hereditaments not exceeding the yearly value of ten thousand dollars, and any goods and chattels whatsoever, of the gift, alienation or bequest of any person or persons whatsoever; to purchase, take and hold any lands and tenements within their county, in fee simple or otherwise, and erect suitable buildings for the reception, use and accommodation of the poor of said county; to provide all things necessary for the lodging, maintenance and employment of said poor; to appoint a treasurer annually, who shall give bond, with full and sufficient surety, for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office, and at the expiration thereof, for the payment and delivery over to his successors in office, of all moneys, bonds, notes, book accounts and other papers, to the said corporation belonging, which shall then be remaining in his hands, custody and possession; and said directors shall have power to employ, and at pleasure remove a steward or stewards, matron or matrons, physician or physicians, surgeon or surgeons, and all other attendants that may be necessary for the said poor, respectively; to bind out apprentices, so that such apprenticeship may expire, if males, at or before the age of twenty-one years, if females, at or before the age of eighteen years, such poor children as shall come under their notice, or as may now be bound apprentice by the overseers of the poor: Provided, That no child shall be bound at a greater distance than thirty miles from the poor house; and the said directors shall exercise and enjoy all such other powers now vested in the overseers of the poor, as are not herein granted or supplied; and the said directors are hereby empowered to use one common seal, in all business relating to the said corporation, and the same at their pleasure to alter and renew.

SECTION 4. The said directors, as soon as may be after their election and organization as aforesaid, shall make an estimate of the probable expense of purchasing the lands and buildings, or erecting the necessary building or buildings and furnishing the same, and maintaining the poor within the said county for one year; whereupon the county commissioners of the said county shall, and they are hereby authorized and required, to increase the county tax by one-fourth part of the sum necessary for the purpose aforesaid; and shall procure on loan, on the credit of the taxes herein directed to be levied, the remaining three-fourths thereof, to be paid in instalments, with interest, out of the county taxes: Provided always, That if such loan cannot be made, the whole amount of the sum necessary for that purpose aforesaid, or such part thereof as may be deemed proper, shall immediately be added to the county tax, to be paid by the county treasurer to the directors aforesaid, on orders drawn in their favor by the county commissioners, as the same may be found necessary.

SECTION 5. It shall be the duty of the said directors, on or before the first day of November in each and every year, to furnish the commissioners of said county, with an estimate of the probable expense of the poor and poor house for one year; and it shall be the duty of said commissioners to assess and cause to be collected the amount of said estimate, which shall be paid to said directors by the county treasurer, on warrants drawn in their favor by the county commissioners, as the same may be found necessary; and the said directors shall, at least once in every year, render an account of all moneys by them received and expended, to the auditors appointed to audit and settle the county accounts, subject to the same penalties, rules and regulations as are by law directed, respecting the accounts of the county commissioners; and shall, at least once in every year, lay before the court of quarter sessions and grand jury of said county, a list of the number, ages and sex of the persons maintained and employed in the said house of employment, or supported or assisted by them elsewhere, and if the children by them bound out to apprenticeship as aforesaid, with the names of their masters or mistresses, and their trade, occupation or calling; and shall, at all times when thereunto required, submit to the inspection and free examination of such visitors as shall, from time to time, be appointed by the court of quarter sessions of the said county, all their books and accounts, together with the rents, interests and moneys, payable and receivable by the said corporation, and also an account of all sales, purchases, donations, devises and bequests, as shall have been made by or to them.

Auditors to audit accounts.

Report annually to the court, &c.

SECTION 6. As soon as the said building shall have been erected or purchased, and all necessary accommodations provided therein, notices shall be sent, signed by any two of the said directors, to the overseers of the several townships of the said county of Blair, requiring them forthwith to bring the poor of their respective townships to said house of employment; which order the overseers are hereby enjoined and required to comply with, or otherwise to forfeit the costs of all future maintenance, except in cases when sickness or any other sufficient cause, any poor person cannot be removed; in which case the overseers shall represent the same to the nearest justice of the peace, who, being satisfied of the truth thereof, shall certify the same to the said directors, and at the same time issue an order, under his hand and seal, to the said overseers, directing them to maintain such poor until such time he or she may be in a situation to be removed, and then convey the said pauper, and deliver him or her to the steward or keeper of the said house of employment, together with the said order; and the charge and expense of such temporary relief, and of such removal, shall be paid by the said directors, at a reasonable allowance.

Upon completion of buildings to admit the poor of the county.

SECTION 7. The said directors shall from time to time receive, provide for and employ, according to the true intent and meaning of this act, all such poor and indigent persons as shall be entitled to relief, or shall have gained a legal settlement in said county of Blair, and shall be sent there by an order or warrant for that purpose, under the hand and seals of any two justices of the peace, directed to any constable of the said county of Blair, or to the overseers of the proper township in any other county of this commonwealth; and the said directors are hereby authorized, when they shall deem it proper and convenient to do so, to permit any poor person or persons to be maintained elsewhere: Provided, The expense of their maintenance does not in any case exceed that for which they could be maintained at the poor house of the said county of Blair.

Administer oaths. SECTION 9. The said directors, or either of them, shall have full power and authority to administer oaths or affirmations to all persons residing in the said house of employment, or becoming chargeable to the said county, touching their place of legal settlement; and in case such poor person or persons shall refuse to take the said oath or affirmation, or refuse to answer such questions as shall be asked by the said directors, touching and relating to the said settlement, the said directors may withhold all further relief from such poor person or persons, until he, she or they shall consent to take such oath or affirmation, and answer all such questions as aforesaid; and the said board of directors, or either of them, in addition to the power hereinbefore granted, are authorized and empowered to administer oaths and affirmations in all cases whatever, relating to their official duties.

To meet monthly, at least. SECTION 10. A quorum of said directors shall, and they are hereby enjoined and required, to meet at the said house of employment at least once in every month, and visit the apartments, and see that the poor are comfortably supported, and hear all complaints, and redress or cause to be redressed all grievances that may happen by the neglect or misconduct of any person or persons in their employment or otherwise.

Compensation. SECTION 11. The said directors shall each receive for their services annually, the sum of twenty dollars, to defray the expenses of their necessary attendance on the duties of their office.

To supply vacancies. SECTION 12. In case of any vacancy by death, resignation or otherwise, of any of said directors, the remaining directors shall fill such vacancy by the appointment of a citizen of their county, under the same penalty as is provided by the third section of this act, to serve until the next general election, when another director shall be elected, to serve as if no such vacancy had happened.

Effect of former claims. SECTION 13. All claims and demands existing at the time of this act being carried into effect, shall have full force and effect, as if this act had not passed; and when the same may have been duly adjusted and settled, all moneys remaining in the hands of the overseers, as well as the uncollected taxes levied for the support of the poor in the several townships of the county of Blair, shall be paid over to the supervisors of the highways of their respective townships, to be by them applied towards repairing the roads therein.

Office of overseer abolished. SECTION 14. As soon as the poor of the county of Blair shall have been removed to the house of employment of the said county, and the outstanding taxes collected and paid over, the office of overseer of the poor within said county shall from thenceforth be abolished.

Certain powers and duties conferred upon directors. SECTION 15. The powers conferred and the duties imposed on the overseers of the poor in and by an act to empower the overseers and guardians of the poor of the several townships within this commonwealth to recover certain fines, penalties and forfeitures, and for other purposes, are hereby conferred and imposed on the directors of the poor in the said county of Blair; and that the justices of the peace and sheriff within the said county of Blair, are hereby required and enjoined to pay to the said directors, to be by them applied for the maintenance of the poor of said county, the aforesaid fines, forfeitures and penalties, within the time and in the manner prescribed by the said act for the payment thereof in other counties, to the overseer of the poor, and to give notice of the receipt thereof to the said directors, within the time and in the manner aforesaid; and that for any neglect or refusal to perform any of the duties enjoined on them by the said act, the said justices of the peace and sheriff in the said county shall be subject to all fines, penalties and forfeitures to which the justices and sheriffs in other counties by the said act are subject or liable.

SECTION 16. The commissioners of said county are hereby authorized and empowered to pay the persons who are appointed commissioners by the first section of this act, the expenses incurred by them in the performance of their duty; and also to pay to each of the said directors a reasonable compensation for their services during the term they are employed in erecting any building or buildings aforesaid: Provided, The same shall not, including the annual sum allowed to them by this act, exceed fifty dollars for any one year. Commissioners to be compensated.

SECTION 17. So much of the laws of this commonwealth relating to the poor as are by this act altered or supplied, be and the same is hereby repealed, so far as they affect the county of Blair. Repeal.

SECTION 18. That the sheriff of said county shall in due time notify the said commissioners of their appointment, and when and where they shall meet for entering upon the duties assigned them by this act, which place of meeting shall be as near the centre of the county as possible. Sheriff to notify commissioners.
