

No. 30.

AN ACT

To incorporate the Olive cemetery company.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That Joseph P. Humphries, George W. Gaines, Mifflin Gibbs, Urban D. Bayard, and James C. Andrews, together with such other persons as may hereafter become purchasers of lots, for burial purposes, within a certain tract of land, situate on the north side of the Lancaster turnpike, in the township of Blockley, in the county of Philadelphia, containing about ten acres and twenty-two perches, lately purchased by the said Joseph P. Humphries, George W. Gaines, and Mifflin Gibbs, be and they are hereby made a body politic and corporate in law, under the name, style and title of "the Olive cemetery company;" and by that name shall be able and capable, in law, to use a common seal, and to sue and be sued, to plead and be impleaded, and to do all such other things as are incident to a corporation.

SECTION 2. The affairs of the said company shall be conducted by a board of five managers, to be elected annually by the lot-holders, on the first Monday in September, and in such elections, each person shall be entitled to one vote for every lot that he may own; the managers shall have power to lay out and ornament the said tract of land, arrange and sell burial lots, and make such by-laws, rules and regulations, as they may deem necessary and proper for the protection of the cemetery, and the business of the company: Provided, That the said persons named in the first section of this act, shall be managers until the first Monday in September next, and until others are duly elected.

SECTION 3. That no street, lane or road, shall hereafter be opened through the said tract occupied as a cemetery, without the consent of a majority of the lot-holders; and the same, when used as a place of sepulture, shall be exempt from taxation, excepting for state purposes; and no lot which may be purchased as a place of sepulchre, shall be subject to attachment or execution, for any debt or debts of the owner thereof: Provided, That said exemption from attachment and execution, shall not extend to more than four lots as owned by any one individual.

WILLIAM F. PACKER,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

GEORGE DARSIE,
Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The fifth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine.

WM. F. JOHNSTON.

Corporators.

Style.

Privileges.

Officers.

Annual election.

Votes.

Powers.

Proviso.

Exempt from taxation, except state taxes.