

a ticket labeled "road law," the words written or printed thereon, "for the new law," in case he shall vote in favor of it, or "against the new law," if opposed to it; and it shall be the duty of the commissioners of said county, to give at least ten days' notice of such election, in each newspaper printed within the county.

Duty of election officers.

SECTION 2. The officers of elections in the several election districts, shall make return of the votes polled for and against the new law, to the next court of quarter sessions of the said county; and if a majority of the votes polled be found to be against the new law, then it shall not go into effect in the said county of Butler; but if a majority shall vote in favor of it, then the new law shall go into effect as though this act had not been passed.

By whom roads
are to be repaired.

SECTION 3. If a majority shall decide against the new law, then of the three commissioners, who shall be elected in accordance with the provisions of said law, the two highest in vote shall act as supervisors for the ensuing year, and shall proceed to repair roads and bridges, as if the law of eighteen hundred and forty-six had not been passed.

JAMES COOPER,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

CH. GIBBONS,

Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The twenty-third day of February, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven.

FRS. R. SHUNK.

No. 100.

AN ACT

Authorizing the burgesses and town council of the borough of Wrightsville, in the county of York, to provide a lock-up house.

To provide a lock up house.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the burgesses and town council of the borough of Wrightsville, in the county of York, be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to have built, or otherwise provided and supported in or near said borough, at the expense thereof, a suitable building for the security and temporary detention of any person or persons committed by any justice of the peace, burgess or constable of said borough, for any violation of the laws of this commonwealth, or of the ordinance or ordinances of the borough aforesaid, for which such person or persons could lawfully be committed to the common jail of the county aforesaid, there to remain and be kept until such offender or offenders can be removed to the common prison of said county, (if committed for an indictable offence, or until discharged according to law :) Provided, That no person or persons shall be confined in said lock-up house, at any one time, for a longer period than twenty-four hours, except such person or persons be charged with an indictable offence, and it may be necessary to detain him, her or them for a legal examination.

SECTION 2. That the expense of arresting, binding over or committing, and keeping such person or persons in the said lock-up house, or conveying him, her or them to the common jail of the county aforesaid, on any indictable offence, shall be paid by the county of York, on the presentation of proper accounts to the commissioners of said county. Expenses, how to be paid.

JAMES COOPER,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

CH. GIBBONS,

Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The twenty-third day of February, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven.

FRS. R. SHUNK.

No. 101.

A SUPPLEMENT

To the act, entitled "An Act incorporating the Philadelphia college of medicine."

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That so much of the act, entitled "An Act incorporating the Philadelphia college of medicine," approved January the fourteenth, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, which restricts the period for the delivery of lectures in said college, be and the same is hereby repealed; and said college is authorized, should it be deemed proper and necessary, to deliver a course of lectures between the months of October and April, in each and every year. Powers increased.

JAMES COOPER,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

CH. GIBBONS,

Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The twenty-third day of February, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven.

FRS. R. SHUNK.