SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That so much of the second section of the act of April eighth, eighteen hundred and forty-six, entitled "An Act vacating a part of Camac street, in Penn township, in the county of Philadelphia, and for other purposes," as prohibits the closing and occupancy of Irish Tract lane, by the respective owners of property thereon, until such time as certain other streets have been laid out, opened, and put in traveling condition, be and the same is hereby repealed, so far as it relates to that part of the said lane that lies between Cedar and Fitzwater streets; and the owners of property fronting thereon, be and they are hereby authorized to close and take possession of the same, whenever they shall deem it expedient: Provided, That the consent of the board of commissioners of the township of Moyamensing shall be first obtained.

SECTION 2. That Wharton street, between Passyunk road and Tenth street, in the county of Philadelphia, be and the same is hereby reduced in width on the northern side thereof, so as to conform to and range with the northern line of said street, as laid down to the east of Passyunk road, and west of Tenth street; and so much of said Wharton street, as heretofore laid down, as lies north of the line herein designated, be and the same is hereby vacated.

SECTION 3. That a certain street, now called Crab street, extending from Cedar to Plum street, in the district of Southwark, Philadelphia county, shall be hereafter designated and known by the name of Charles street.

JAMES COOPER,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

CH. GIBBONS,
Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The twenty-fourth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven.

FRS. R. SHUNK.
