

And whereas, It is but just and proper that the county should contribute for a portion of such extra work, which, by the act of twenty-fourth of February, eighteen hundred and forty-five, the citizens of Bloomsburg were not bound to construct ; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the commissioners of Columbia county are hereby authorized to appropriate, out of the county funds of said county, a sum of money, not exceeding twenty-five hundred dollars, to pay for the fire proofs and other extra work in and about the new public buildings in Bloomsburg, and for furnishing the same : Provided, That no part of the said sum so appropriated shall be paid out of the county treasury before the acceptance of the said buildings for public use. Commissioners to appropriate certain funds to pay for fire proofs, &c.

JAMES COOPER,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

CH. GIBBONS,
Speaker of the Senate.
