court house, in the city of Philadelphia, to be provided by the county commissioners, according to existing laws, each window to be designated with the name of the ward and precinct aforesaid; and said qualified electors residing within such precincts, shall, at all such ward elections, vote at separate windows, at the places now or hereafter to be provided or fixed by law for holding such elections, each window to be designated with the name of the ward and precinct.

SECTION 2. That the inspectors and judges who were elected on the third Friday of March, eighteen hundred and forty-six, or those legally appointed to supply the place of any of them, and those who shall be elected in every year thereafter, to conduct the general and special elections in said Locust, South, Middle, North, South Mulberry, North Mulberry, Upper Delaware and Lower Delaware wards, shall, as soon as conveniently may be, appoint additional inspectors and judges, as follows: each inspector shall appoint an additional inspector, and each judge an additional judge, to act as judge and inspectors in the precinct for which he shall be appointed; each additional inspector and judge to be a resident and qualified elector of the precinct for which he shall be appointed.

How elections are to be conducted.

SECTION 3. No inspector, in either of said precincts, shall receive any ticket from any person other than an elector residing within the said precinct; and the additional inspectors, to be appointed under the provisions of this act, shall have the power to appoint clerks; and the said additional inspectors, judges and clerks, shall, within their respective precincts, take the same oaths or affirmations, and perform the same duties as are now by law imposed on and taken by inspectors, judges and clerks; and in case of a vacancy in the place of such additional inspector or judge, the same shall be filled by the inspector or judge who made the original appointment.

Duties and qualifications of election officers.

SECTION 4. It shall be the duty of the commissioners of the county of Philadelphia, to furnish to the additional inspectors and judges to be appointed under the provisions of this act, the same ballot boxes, blank forms, lists of taxables, and all other matters which are now by law furnished to judges and inspectors of elections within the said city: Provided, That for the year eighteen hundred and forty-seven, and thereafter, the lists of taxable inhabitants shall conform with the precincts of the respective wards.

Duty of county commissioners.

SECTION 5. That on the closing of the polls in the said precincts, and the counting of the votes, the judges of the precincts hereby erected in each of the said wards, shall add together the number of votes received in the said precincts, so as to make a single return for the said

Duty of judges.

ward; and in the choice of a return judge for the said city, the said additional judge shall not vote, but the return judge shall be elected as heretofore provided for by law.

Electors, where to vote.

SECTION 6. That the electors residing within East North Mulberry, West North Mulberry, East Middle, West Middle, East Lower Delaware, West Lower Delaware, East Upper Delaware and West Upper Delaware, shall vote at windows, to be provided on the north side of the state house; and the electors of New Market, Spruce, Lombard, Cedar, Dock, West Locust, East Locust and Pine wards, shall vote at windows, to be provided on the south side of the state house; and the electors of Chesnut, East South Mulberry, West South Mulberry, East North, West North and Walnut wards, shall vote at windows, to be provided on the east and south sides of the south room of the county court house; and the electors of West South, East South and High Street wards, shall vote at windows, to be provided on the north and east sides of the north room of the county court house, at the corner of Sixth and Chesnut streets, in the city of Philadelphia.

Not to interfere with present wards.

SECTION 7. That nothing in this act contained shall be construed to affect or interfere with the present division of the wards of the city of Philadelphia, or the officers thereof, except as hereinbefore specified.

Compensation of election officers.

SECTION 8. That the additional inspectors, judges and clerks herein appointed, shall be entitled to the same compensation, as is now by law allowed.
