

Proviso.

up to said guardians, any and every claim, interest and obligation which they may have, or may hereafter acquire, with all books, papers, and other documents appertaining to their office, together with any moneys they may have on hand: Provided, That all engagements, contracts or obligations lawfully entered into by said overseers, in the faithful performance of their duties, shall be carefully observed by said guardians, according to the true import of the same, as if the overseers still continued in office.

To admit poor.

SECTION 8. That said guardians are hereby authorized to receive, support or employ any poor, sick or infirm persons, from any township in the county of Allegheny, on such terms as shall be agreed upon by the overseers of the poor of such township or townships, and said guardians.

Repeal.

SECTION 9. That from and after the organization of the board of guardians of the poor, as above provided for, the office of overseer of the poor of the city of Pittsburg shall forever cease, and that so much of any law as is hereby altered or supplied, be and is hereby repealed.

JAMES COOPER,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

CH. GIBBONS,

Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The sixth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven.

FRS. R. SHUNK.

No. 183.

AN ACT

Confirming the title of certain lands in Bradford county.

Warrants and patents issued for Dickinson college lands, made valid.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That all the warrants and patents issued for the lands known as the Dickinson college lands, in the county of Bradford, are hereby declared valid; and the surveyor general is hereby directed to issue warrants or patents to the actual settlers, or their representatives, on their paying into the treasury of this commonwealth, the purchase money required to be paid by other actual settlers, within the purchase made in the year seventeen hundred and eighty-four, known as the last purchase: Provided, That this act shall not be construed to have any effect in suits now in litigation, or that may hereafter be brought, in which the rights of individuals may be effected.

JAMES COOPER,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

CH. GIBBONS,

Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The sixth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven.

FRS. R. SHUNK.