AN ACT

To divide the borough of Allentown, in the county of Lehigh, into two wards.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That from and after the passage of this act, the borough of Allentown, in the county of Lehigh, shall be and is hereby divided into two wards, in manner following, to wit: All that part of said borough lying north of the middle of Hamilton street, shall compose one ward, to be called North ward, and all that part of said borough lying south of the middle of said Hamilton street, shall compose another ward, to be called South ward: And provided, That the borough of Allentown be and remain one school district as if this act had not been passed.

Division of the borough of Allentown into two wards.

SECTION 2. Each of said wards so constituted shall form a separate election district, and shall vote for and elect one justice of the peace for said ward, one constable, one assessor, one school director, one street commissioner, one judge of elections, two inspectors of elections, and alternately, three of the five councilmen which are annually elected in said borough: Provided, That at the first election for borough officers after such division shall have taken place, the three members of the town council shall be elected in the North ward of said borough.

Separate election districts.

Proviso.

SECTION 3. That the officers whose duty it is to hold the elections of said borough, shall hold the first election of the South ward, and the town council of said borough shall appoint the officers for holding the first election of the North ward.

Election in South ward.

SECTION 4. That all officers whose election is not provided for in this act, shall be elected as heretofore: Provided, That the elections of each ward shall be held at the places hereinafter mentioned, and that the judges of each ward shall be return judges, and shall make return jointly of the election of said officers, in manner and form as was made by the election officers of said borough before the passage of this act.

Officers whose election is not provided for in this act, to be elected as heretofore.

SECTION 5. The ward elections of the North ward, shall be held at the public house now occupied by William Derr, in said ward, and the Place of holding the elections.

LAWS OF PENNSYLVANIA,

elections of the South ward, shall be held at the public house now occupied by John Kleckner, in said ward; all general elections shall be held in the county court house, the qualified voters of each ward voting at separate windows.
