AN ACT

Authorizing the trustees under the will of David Bacon, deceased, to sell certain real estate.

WHEREAS, David Bacon, being seized in fee of and in one undivided fifth part of a certain small triangular strip of ground, situate on the west side of Delaware Fourth street, between Tammany and Green streets, in the Northern Liberties, in the county of Philadelphia, bounded on the north-westward and south-eastward by ground late of the estate of Philip Stock, deceased, and eastward by the said Fourth street, did, on the third day of the ninth month, A. D., one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, make his last will and testament, proved on the eighteenth day of the same month, and registered at Philadelphia, wherein and whereby he devised three-sixth parts of all the rest and residue of his estate, real and personal, (including his share of the said triangular strip of ground,) unto his three sons, Joseph, Charles W. and Edmund P. Bacon, and the survivors of them, and the heirs and assigns of such survivor, in trust for his three daughters, Susan, wife of Joseph L. Hancock, Anna, since intermarried with Mitchell Watson, and Mary Bacon, as therein mentioned; and by his said will the said testator gave no power or authority to his said trustees, to sell or convey any part of the said trust estate, and it is the wish of all the persons interested in the said estate, that the said triangular lot of ground should be sold or otherwise disposed of; that the same is a small, narrow strip of ground, lying on the said street, in front of other ground of great value, in which the said parties have an interest and power to sell, but are prevented from doing so on account of their inability to sell the said small triangular strip, and that the same is unimproved, and a charge to the estate, and of little value except to give a front on the said street to the other property; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the said Joseph Bacon, Charles W. Bacon and Edmund P. Bacon, the trustees named in the said last will and testament of David Bacon, de-

Trustees under the will of David Bacon, deceased, authorized to sell certain real estate.
