No. 167.

AN ACT

Supplementary to an act passed Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, incorporating the borough of Shrewsbury, in York county.

Lay out streets and alleys.
Proviso.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That from and after the passage of this act it shall be lawful for the town council of the borough of Shrewsbury aforesaid, to survey, lay out and open the necessary streets and alleys in said borough: Provided, That no street or alley shall be laid out or opened unless by a petition signed by a majority of the taxable inhabitants of said borough, asking or praying the said council to lay out and open the same; and any damages that may accrue in consequence of said laying out and opening, shall be determined by five disinterested persons, chosen from the adjoining townships, two of whom shall be chosen by the damage claimants, and two by the said town council, and the fifth to be chosen by the consent of both parties, who shall receive for their services each one dollar per day; which sum, together with the amount of damages, shall be paid by said corporation.

J. S. M'CALMONT,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

V. BEST,
Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The fourteenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty.
