A SUPPLEMENT

To the act, entitled "An Act to abolish imprisonment for debt, and to punish fraudulent debtors."

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That no attachment hereafter issued by any alderman or justice of the peace of this commonwealth, in pursuance of the twenty-seventh section of the act, entitled "An Act to abolish imprisonment for debt and to punish fraudulent debtors," approved the twelfth day of July, Anno Domini, one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, shall remain and continue a lien on the property attached for a longer period than sixty days, from and after the time when the plaintiff might legally have had execution issued on said judgment; but the said property shall, after the expiration of the said time, be discharged from such attachment: Provided, That the said property shall remain liable to be seized and taken in execution as in other cases: And provided further, That whenever an appeal shall be entered and taken from the judgment of the justice, the lien on the property attached as aforesaid, shall remain for the period of sixty days after final judgment.

Attachment issued by alderman or justice of the peace, not to remain a lien longer than sixty days, &c.

Proviso.
