

No. 329.

AN ACT

To authorize the executors of the last will and testament of Joseph Mansfield, deceased, to sell and convey certain real estate in the county of Philadelphia; and to incorporate the Fairmount fire engine company of the district of Spring Garden, in said county.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That Isaac Boileau and E. A. Rakstool, late E. A. Mansfield, of the county of Philadelphia, executors of the last will and testament of Joseph Mansfield, deceased, late of the Northern Liberties, be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to sell and convey, at public or private sale, all the right, title, claim and interest, in law or equity, which the said Joseph Mansfield may have had in and to a certain lot or piece of ground, with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, situate in Callowhill street, below Water street, in the district of the Northern Liberties, and county of Philadelphia, containing in front or breadth on said Callowhill street, sixteen feet, and in length or depth, forty-six feet, more or less, and to make good and sufficient deed or deeds or assurances therefor, as fully and effectually as he, the said Joseph Mansfield, could have done in his lifetime: Provided however, That the orphans' court for the city and county of Philadelphia first approve said sale, and that the said executors give such security as the said court may require, for the faithful appropriations of the proceeds arising therefrom.

Executors of Joseph Mansfield authorized to sell certain real estate.

Proviso.

SECTION 2. That all persons who are now members of the association called the Fairmount fire engine company, of the district of Spring Garden, in the county of Philadelphia, or shall be hereafter admitted members of the same, shall be and they are hereby erected and declared to be one body politic and corporate, by the name, style and title of Style. "The Fairmount fire engine company of the district of Spring Garden, in the county of Philadelphia;" and by the same name shall have perpetual succession, and shall be able to sue and be sued, implead and be impleaded, in all courts of record or otherwise; and to purchase, receive, have, hold and enjoy, to them and their successors, all and all manner of lands, tenements, rents, annuities, liberties, franchises and hereditaments, goods and chattels, of what nature, kind or quality soever, real, personal or mixed, or choses in action, and the same from time to time to sell, grant, devise, alien or dispose of: Provided, That the clear yearly value or income of the said corporation shall not exceed the sum of three thousand dollars; and also to make and have a common seal, and the same to break, alter or renew at pleasure; and also to ordain, establish and put in-execution such by-laws, ordinances and regulations as shall appear necessary and convenient for the government of the said corporation, not being contrary to this charter or the constitution and laws of the United States or of this commonwealth; and generally to do all and singular the matters and things which to them it shall lawfully appertain to do for the well being of the said corporation, and the due ordering and management of the affairs thereof.

Fairmount fire engine company.

Style.

Privileges.

This act not to affect the rights in a certain association.

SECTION 3. That nothing contained in this act shall in anywise affect, alter or diminish the rights and interests of the said Fairmount fire engine company in the fire association of Philadelphia; but that the said Fairmount fire engine company shall have, hold, possess and enjoy the same, under the name of the Fairmount fire engine company of the district of Spring Garden, in the county of Philadelphia.

Banking privileges prohibited, &c.

SECTION 4. Nothing in this act contained shall be deemed to authorize the said company to engage, either directly or indirectly, in any banking, moneyed, commercial or manufacturing concern; but the object of the said corporation shall be the promotion of the public good, by the extinguishment of fires.

Reservation.

SECTION 5. The legislature reserves the right to alter, revoke or annul the privileges and charter hereby granted, whenever, in their opinion, the same be injurious to the citizens of this commonwealth; in such manner, however, that no injustice shall be done to the corporators.

J. S. M'CALMONT,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

V. BEST,
Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The nineteenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty.
