

also furnish to each of the said registers, at the cost of the Commonwealth, the blank books and indexes required by the first or any other section of this act, and also, at the same time, transmit a printed copy of this act, which shall be bound with said blank book, and such instructions on the subject of the law as he may see fit to prepare, and generally to do whatever may be required to carry into effect the provisions of this act.

SECTION 14. That every clergyman, justice of the peace, physician, sexton, or undertaker, whose duty it is to make any return under this act, shall, on or before the first day of October next, return his name and residence to the register of the county in which he may reside, who shall record the said return in a book to be kept for the purpose, to be provided at the expense of the county, and such person shall notify the register of his removal to any other place in or out of said county, within thirty days after such removal, except where he may cease to act in a professional or official capacity.

Persons required to make returns, to have their names and residence registered in the office of the Register.

SECTION 15. That all acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith, or supplied as aforesaid, are hereby repealed.

Repeal.

JOHN CESSNA,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

BENJAMIN MATTHIAS,
Speaker of the Senate.

We do certify that the bill entitled "An Act to provide for a registration of marriages, births, and deaths," was presented to the Governor on the fourteenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, being within ten days of the close of the last session of the Legislature, and not having been "sent back within three days" of the meeting of the present General Assembly, wherefore it has, agreeably to the Constitution of this Commonwealth, become a law in like manner as if he had signed it.

WILLIAM JACK,
Clerk of the House of Representatives.

JOHN M. SULLIVAN,
Clerk of the Senate.

Harrisburg, January 12, 1852.
