Granting certain powers to a surviving trustee and to authorize the Presbytery of Philadelphia to fill vacancies in the Board of Trustees of the Presbyterian Institute.

WHEREAS, By a certain indenture, or post nuptial settlement, executed by Thos. J. Miles, M. A. E. Miles, Geo. Sharswood, and F. A. Raybold, on the second day of October, one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, recorded in the office for recording of deeds, in the city of Philadelphia, in deed book R. L. L., No. fifteen, page thirty-three, the property of the said M. A. E. Miles was conveyed to the said Sharswood and Raybold, in trust for certain uses therein specified: Preamble.

And whereas, It was provided by the said deed that the "said Thomas and Mary Anna, by and with the consent of the said Geo. Sharswood and Frederick A. Raybold, by any deed or instruments under their hands and seals, should at any time revoke the trust:"

And whereas, It may be important to the interests of said trust that the powers of revocation shall continue to exist therein, and as doubts
