AN ACT

A SUPPLEMENT

To an act entitled "An act to appoint commissioners to run and mark the county lines between Bedford, Fulton and Huntingdon, passed the twentieth day of April, Anno Domini, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three.

WHEREAS, By the survey of the lines between the counties of Fulton and Huntingdon, made in pursuance of an act entitled "An act to appoint commissioners to run and mark the county lines of Bedford, Fulton and Huntingdon, approved the twentieth day of April, Anno Domini, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, the residence of Frederick Dubbs has been found to be situate part in Fulton and part in Huntingdon:

And whereas, Doubts have arisen as to which county the occupants of said house are citizens of; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the house in which Frederick Dubbs now resides, be taken and deemed to be entirely in the county of Fulton, and the persons now occupying or hereafter to occupy the same as a residence, be taken and deemed to be citizens of Fulton county.

E. B. CHASE,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

M. M'CASLIN,

Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The sixth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four.

AN ACT

Relating to Official Seals.

WHEREAS, The seals of the several counties, courts, and county officers of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania differ materially in regard to the legends and devices upon them:

And whereas, It is desirable that there should be uniformity in the attestation of official papers by public officers; therefore,

LAWS OF PENNSYLVANIA,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That upon every seal hereafter to be procured of a county, court of common pleas, court of oyer and terminer, court of quarter sessions, orphans' court, register, recorder, and notary public of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, there shall be engraved the same device as is engraved on the great seal of the State, together with the name of the county, court, or office in which the seal is to be used for the attestation of official papers.

SECTION 2. That the Secretary of the Commonwealth shall be required to procure from time to time, the seals for the several counties, courts, and county officers, and notaries public in said several counties in the Commonwealth, and that the Auditor General shall charge said several counties respectively with the cost of said seals, except those of notaries public.

E. B. CHASE,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

M. M'CASLIN,

Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The sixth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four.
