

phia, and not the second associate Presbyterian congregation of Philadelphia, as named in said act of Assembly.

And whereas, The said second associate congregation of Philadelphia, in pursuance of the said above mentioned act of Assembly, bargained and sold the said lot of ground with the church erected thereon, and by deed dated the first day of March, Anno Domini, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, recorded at Philadelphia, in deed-book T. H., number thirty-two, page three hundred and eighty-six, et cetera, the trustees thereof granted and conveyed the same unto the first Cumberland Presbyterian church of Philadelphia, their successors and assigns forever.

And whereas, Doubts have been entertained as to the power of the said the second associate congregation of Philadelphia, to sell and convey the said premises by virtue of the said above mentioned act of Assembly, in consequence of the misnomer in the style of said corporation, and it is proposed that their title should be confirmed; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the bargain and sale so as aforesaid made, and the deed made the first day of March, Anno Domini, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, by the said the second associate Congregation of Philadelphia to the said the first Cumberland Presbyterian church of Philadelphia, shall be held and taken to be good and valid, and of the same force and effect as if the style of said congregation had been correctly stated and set forth in the said above recited act of Assembly, and the title to the said lot of ground with the church erected thereon, be vested and confirmed absolutely in the said first Cumberland Presbyterian church of Philadelphia, their successors and assigns.

A SUPPLEMENT

To an act, entitled "An act to Charter the Allegheny and Manchester Plank Road Company," passed May sixth, one thousand eight hundred and fifty.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, The Allegheny and Manchester plank road company have, at a great expense, graded that portion of their road which passes through the corporate limits of the city of Allegheny, but are not permitted by said city to erect a gate for the collection of toll within the limits of said city; therefore,

Surrender.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the Allegheny and Manchester plank road company be and they are hereby authorized to surrender to the city of Allegheny that portion of their road lying within the corporate limits thereof, and remove therefrom the plank and sills laid by them on said road; and that if said company shall, by vote of the board of managers, elect to surrender said portion of their road to said city, they shall, so soon as they have removed the plank and sills therefrom, notify the mayor of said city of such surrender,
