

No. 177.

AN ACT

Relative to the Estate of Ann Low, in Cumberland county.

WHEREAS, Ann Low, of the township of Upper Allen, in the county of Cumberland, lately to wit: On or about the nineteenth day of August last past (one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three) died intest, being seized of a certain tract of land situate in said Upper Allen township, and bounded by lands of John Garret, Levi Eberly, Esquire, and Ann Garret, and containing about nine acres, be the same more or less; and also of some personal property, leaving no husband, issue, father, mother, kindred or relations, and (being illegitimate) without any heirs:

And whereas, It has been established that she, Ann Low, did repeatedly and always, during her natural life, say, that a certain Elizabeth Collar, widow of David Collar, deceased, (being a girl whom she, Ann Low, had brought up,) should have all her estate real and personal:

And whereas, The estate of the said Ann Low has been, and will be, escheated to the Commonwealth; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That all the right, title, and claim which this Commonwealth may have acquired, might acquire, or now has or might have by reason of any escheat or supposed escheat from the want of heirs or known kindred of the said Ann Low, deceased, in and to the real and personal estate of which she died seized, or to which she was entitled, be and the same is hereby granted to and vested in Elizabeth Collar, her heirs and assigns forever, in the same manner, and as largely, fully, freely and amply, as if she had been a child of the said Ann Low, deceased.

E. B. CHASE,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

M. MCASLIN,

Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The twenty-third day of March, A. D., one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four.

WM. BIGLER.