No. 236.

AN ACT

To incorporate the Arcadian Institute of the Borough of Orwigsburg, in the county of Schuylkill.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, By an act of the General Assembly of this Commonwealth, approved the eighth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, the county commissioners of said county were authorized and empowered to release to the borough of Orwigsburg, aforesaid, after the removal of the seat of justice from Orwigsburg to the borough of Pottsville, in said county, on legal demand made by the proper authorities, all the right, title and interest which said county may have in and to county buildings and grounds on which the same are erected, together with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, situate in the borough aforesaid, to have and to hold the same in trust only, for the use and purpose of having the same occupied as an academy or seminary of literature for the instruction and education of youth.

And whereas, The said commissioners, in pursuance of said authority, executed a deed of conveyance in trust to the authorities of the borough of Orwigsburg, aforesaid, bearing date on the fourteenth day of June, Anno Domini, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the chief burgess for the time being, by virtue of his office as such, under the direction of the town council of the borough of Orwigsburg, aforesaid, be and he hereby is constituted a member of the board of trustees of the aforesaid Arcadian Institute, and as such be entitled to a voice in the board of trustees authorized by the second section of this act, for the transaction of all business connected with the institution hereby incorporated, for the especial purpose of carrying out more effectually the true intent and meaning of the aforesaid act of Assembly, approved the eighth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight.

Chief burgess constituted a

SECTION 2. That the following named persons, together with ^{Trustees.} the chief burgess for the time being of the borough of Orwigsburg aforesaid, to wit: Francis S. Hubley, Jacob Hammer, Charles Frailey, John W. Hoffmier, John Schall, Henry Ducachet, James P. Palm, Thomas R. L. Ebur, Daniel Boyer, Isaac Orwig, junior, George Bode, Abraham Fegely, Franklin W. Wagner, Edward B. Hubley, Isaac Hiester, John Seiberling, Samuel Boyer, Philip R. Palm, Charles W. Hegins, Burd Patterson, John Bannan, Benjamin Pott, George D. Leib, George H. McCabe, Emanuel J. Fry, Samuel D. Ball, William Graeff, Francis W. Kremer, Gedion Fahnestock, Simon Cameron, Alexander Jordan and Abraham Forry, constitute a board of trustees of the aforesaid institution, which shall have perpetual succession, and shall be ^{Privileges.} able to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded in all courts of law and equity, to take and hold for the use of said institution, lands, goods, chattels and monies of any kind whatsoever, by gift, grant, devise or bequest, from any person or persons whomsoever making the same, and generally to do all and singular the matters and things which may be lawful for them to do for the well being of the said institution, and the due management and ordering of the affairs thereof.

SECTION 3. That the trustees named in the first and second ^{Vacancies.} sections of this act shall have the power to fill vacancies which may occur from any cause, to appoint a president, secretary and treasurer from among their number, and enact such by-laws as may be necessary, not being inconsistent with the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of this Commonwealth, said trustee shall be authorized to receive subscriptions in sums of any amount, for the purpose of purchasing books, philosophical apparatus, and other property necessary for the use of said institution, and if it may be deemed expedient, lease the real and personal effects of said institution to competent teacher or teachers, and to receive and collect rents and compensation for the use and benefit of the said institution.

SECTION 4. That no misnomer of said institution hereby in- ^{Misnomer.} corporated, shall defeat or annul any gift, grant, devise or bequest made to the same: Provided, That the intent of the par- ^{Proviso.} ties shall sufficiently appear upon the face of the gift, will or writing, whereby any estate or interest was intended to pass to the same.

SECTION 5. That the trustees aforesaid shall have full power ^{Insurance.} to effect an insurance of the premises or any part thereof against fire, either temporary or perpetual, out of any funds of the said institution.

SECTION 6. The object of this act being to supersede the Or- ^{Object.} wigsburg academy, erected in pursuance of the act of the twenty-ninth of March, Anno Domini, one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, the trustees or majority of them, shall have power, upon the organization of the said Arcadian institute under the provisions of this act, to transfer and convey the said Orwigsburg academy and grounds thereunto attached, and to pay or cause to be paid, all the funds which remain in their hands, from whatsoever source received, to the treasurer of the said Arcadian institute, to be used by the same in any manner the better to carry out the purposes of this act.

SECTION 7. The act of Assembly passed the twenty-ninth ^{Repeal.} March, one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, entitled "An act to establish an academy in the borough of Orwigsburg, in the county of Schuylkill, and to grant a sum of money," be and the same is hereby repealed.
