

Section 1. The section heading and subsection (j) of section 2113, act of July 28, 1953 (P. L. 723), known as the "Second Class County Code," are amended to read:

Section 2113. Markers [or] on Graves; Headstones.—* * *

(j) The expense in each case shall be borne by the county in which the deceased service person had his or her legal residence at the time of his or her death, whether or not he or she died in the county and whether or not he or she was buried in the county. The expense shall not exceed the sum of [seventy-five dollars ($75)] one hundred dollars ($100) for each headstone or concrete base or lettering or bronze memorial tablet, and the county commissioners of the county, acting under this section, shall cause to be drawn a warrant on the treasury of the county for the payment of said expense in favor of the party or parties furnishing such headstone or concrete base or lettering or bronze memorial tablet.

AN ACT

HB 276

Amending the act of June 23, 1931 (P. L. 932), entitled "An act relating to cities of the third class; and amending, revising and consolidating the law relating thereto," providing for compensation for police officers who remain on duty overtime when the mayor declares an emergency.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. Section 2004, act of June 23, 1931 (P. L. 932), known as "The Third Class City Code," reenacted and amended June 28, 1951 (P. L. 662) and amended August 26, 1953 (P. L. 1484), is amended to read:

Section 2004. Hours of Service; Exceptions; Vacations.—No city shall employ or require any police officer to remain on duty for more than eight hours in any twenty-four consecutive hours, nor more than forty-four hours in any one week, unless in emergency cases for the suppression of riots or tumults or the preservation of the public peace: Provided, That for the duration of any war in which the United States is engaged, and six months thereafter, the hours of service may exceed the number hereinbefore provided as the maximum number of hours of service, and in such cases, council shall provide for the payment of extra compensation for any hours of service in excess of such maximum hours of service, at the same rate as paid for regular service. Nothing contained herein shall prevent any such city from requiring any such police officer to remain on duty or to work sixteen hours in any twenty-four consecutive hours, not more than one day each week, if required by a change in working hours or a change in shifts. Cities shall permit every member of the police department to have at least twenty-four consecutive hours of rest in every calendar week, except in emergency cases for the suppression of riots or tumults or the preservation of the public peace, in times of war, riot, conflagration, or public celebrations, and to have an annual vacation of not less than fourteen days without diminution of the salary or compensation fixed by ordinance. When the mayor declares an emergency and requires police officers to remain on duty overtime such officers shall be compensated on the basis of their annual salary.

AN ACT

HB 300

To validate certain proceedings for municipal improvements, municipal assessments, municipal claims, and municipal liens in the several cities of the third class, boroughs and townships of this Commonwealth; and validating such improvements, assessments, claims and liens; providing for the filing of claims and liens therefor and the proceedings for the collection of such assessments, claims and liens.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. Whenever, heretofore, the council of any city of the third class or of any borough, or the board of commissioners of any township of the first class or the board of supervisors of any township of the second class of this Commonwealth has authorized by ordinance the
