No. 35

AN ACT

SB 386

Amending the act of June 24, 1939 (P. L. 872), entitled "An act to consolidate, amend and revise the penal laws of the Commonwealth," increasing maximum penalties for wilful false information concerning bombs.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. Section 329, act of June 24, 1939 (P. L. 872), known as "The Penal Code," amended July 21, 1959 (P. L. 554), is amended to read:

Section 329. False Information Concerning Bombs.—Any person who furnishes any false information to a police officer or to any appointed or elected official or to any employe of any political subdivision of this Commonwealth or to any official or employe of any public, private or parochial school, railroad or railroad depot or station, theatre or other place of assembly, concerning the placement or setting of a bomb or other explosive, knowing the same to be false, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction thereof, be sentenced to pay a fine not to exceed [one thousand dollars ($1000)] five thousand dollars ($5000) or undergo imprisonment not to exceed [one year] five years, or both.

APPROVED—The 5th day of May, A. D. 1965.
