The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. Section 304, act of April 9, 1929 (P. L. 177), known as "The Administrative Code of 1929," amended May 29, 1951 (P. L. 491), is amended to read:

Section 304. Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission.—The Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission shall consist of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, ex officio, nine citizens of the Commonwealth, and four members of the General Assembly, two from the Senate and two from the House of Representatives. [The members of the commission who are members of the General Assembly shall have no right to vote, but shall in all other respects enjoy all the rights and privileges of membership.] One of the members of the commission shall be designated by the Governor to serve as chairman of the commission. The commission shall appoint to serve at its pleasure, and, with the approval of the Governor, fix the compensation of an executive director who shall attend to the administrative work of the commission. No member of the commission, nor any one who has served as a member thereof within one year, shall be eligible for appointment as executive director.

[Six] Eight members of the commission [who are not members of the General Assembly] shall constitute a quorum.

The present members of the Pennsylvania Historical Commission shall be members of the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission, who, together with the other four original members of the commission, shall be appointed by the Governor, on or before the effective date of this act, and shall hold their office until the third Tuesday of January, one thousand nine hundred and forty-seven, or until their successors shall have been appointed and qualified, as provided by law. The four members to be appointed, as aforesaid, who are not members of the present Pennsylvania Historical Commission shall be chosen from sections of the Commonwealth not represented by the five members who are now members of the Pennsylvania Historical Commission.

The members of the General Assembly shall be appointed by the President pro tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives, respectively, for a term to expire with his concurrent term as a legislator, and shall serve until his successor is appointed and qualified, unless he shall not be elected for the next succeeding term as a member of the General Assembly, in which case a vacancy shall occur.

Members, other than members of the General Assembly, shall serve for a term of four years and each shall serve until his successor is appointed and qualified.

APPROVED—The 2d day of June, A. D. 1965.
