No. 61

AN ACT

HB 746

Authorizing political subdivisions to make appropriations for carrying out anti-poverty programs in conjunction with the Federal Economic Opportunity Act of 1964 and validating their prior appropriations therefor.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. Any political subdivision in the Commonwealth may appropriate moneys required as a condition precedent to receiving, or to match, Federal grants for carrying out anti-poverty projects in conjunction with the programs of the Economic Opportunity Act of 1964, Public Law 88-452, 78 Statutes 508, its amendments and supplements. Moneys so appropriated may be paid to nonprofit organizations carrying out such projects.

Section 2. Any moneys appropriated and paid by a political subdivision for the purposes set forth in this act heretofore made are hereby validated.

Section 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

APPROVED—The 2d day of June, A. D. 1965.
