power to enter into such contracts directly without the intervention of any State department or agency, subject, however, to the approval of the Governor, Auditor General and State Treasurer.

Section 42.1. The Secretary of the Senate and the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives, acting jointly, shall appoint a registered nurse to serve as legislative nurse at an annual salary of six thousand six hundred dollars ($6600) who shall serve until her successor is appointed and qualified. She shall have charge of a first-aid room which shall be located in the quarters presently occupied for that purpose.

Section 43. Each of the officers and employes authorized by this act shall be entitled to mileage for one round trip each regular, special or extraordinary session of the Legislature for which he has been elected or appointed and at which he is required by this act to be in attendance at the rate of ten cents (10¢) per mile to and from their homes to be computed by the ordinary mail route between their homes and the State Capitol.

Section 44. All vacancies that may occur or exist by death, resignation or otherwise, of any of the officers or employes provided for by this act during any regular, special or extraordinary session of the Legislature shall be filled by election or appointment as provided for in this act. If any vacancy shall occur during the recess of the Legislature in the Office of President pro tempore of the Senate or of the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the duties of said office shall be performed by the Majority Leader of the Senate or of the House of Representatives, as the case may be.

All other vacancies that may occur during the recess among the elective officers or employes of the Senate or of the House of Representatives shall be filled by appointment by the President pro tempore of the Senate or by the Speaker of the House of Representatives until the next regular, special or extraordinary session of the Legislature. Vacancies occurring at any time among appointive officers and employes shall be filled by the respective officers authorized to appoint said officers or employes.

Section 45. All offices and positions of employment in both the Senate and the House of Representatives, heretofore provided for by law, and for which no provision is made by this act, are hereby abolished.

Section 46. No appropriation, heretofore made to pay the salary or per diem compensation of any officer or employe of the Senate or of the House of Representatives whose office or employment is abolished by this act, shall lapse by reason thereof, but all sums so appropriated are hereby reappropriated to the Senate or to the House of Representatives, as the case may be, for the purpose of paying the salaries and per diem or other compensations provided for by this act.

Section 47. The Director of the Legislative Reference Bureau shall receive an annual salary of eighteen thousand dollars ($18,000).

Section 48. There shall be compiled, annually, on or prior to the first day of February of each year, a complete list of employes of the Senate and of the House of Representatives.

The Chief Clerk of the Senate shall be responsible for compilation of the list of employes of the Senate required by this section and shall mail a copy of the list to each member of the General Assembly. He shall post a copy of the list in his office for a period of thirty days after the date of compilation.

The Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall be responsible for compilation of the list of employes of the House of Representatives required by this section and shall mail a copy of the list to each member of the General Assembly. He shall post a copy of the list in his office for a period of thirty days after the date of compilation.

ARTICLE IV

Repeals and Effective Dates

Section 61. The following acts and their amendments are hereby repealed absolutely:

(1) The act of October 2, 1959 (P. L. 1251), entitled "An act relating to officers and employes of the General Assembly; fixing the number, qualifications, compensation, mileage and duties of the officers and employes of the Senate and of the House of Representatives; providing for their election or appointment, term of office, or of service, removal, and manner of filling vacancies; fixing the salary of the Director of the Legislative Reference Bureau; providing for compilation of lists of employes," and its amendments are repealed absolutely.

(2) The act of April 11, 1961 (P. L. 74), entitled "An act providing for the appointment of a registered nurse for the members of the General Assembly," is repealed absolutely.

(3) All other acts or parts of acts are repealed in so far as they are inconsistent herewith.

Section 62. This act shall take effect immediately.

APPROVED—The 2d day of July, A. D. 1965.
