No. 165

AN ACT

SB 828

Amending the act of December 15, 1959 (P. L. 1779), entitled, as amended, "An act relating to fish, frogs, tadpoles and turtles; and amending, revising, consolidating and changing the law relating to fish in the inland waters and the boundary lakes and boundary rivers of the Commonwealth," making an editorial correction.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. Sections 81 and 82, act of December 15, 1959 (P. L. 1779), known as "The Fish Law of 1959," are hereby reenacted and amended to read:

Section 81. Creel Limits.—No person shall in any one day catch, kill or have in possession more than the number of fish designated for the respective species in section 40, chapter II. of this act.

The foregoing parts of this section shall be effective except where the Commission, by regulation shall otherwise provide as a result of a determination by it that modification is desirable from a fish management standpoint, in which event, the Commission's regulation shall prevail.

Section 82. Closed Season.—No person shall catch, take or have in possession any game fish from the first day of December to the fourteenth day of June next ensuing, both dates inclusive: Provided, however, That game fish in season may be caught and taken, not exceeding the daily creel limits fixed by this act, when tip-ups or other legal devices are employed while fishing through holes in the ice.

The foregoing parts of this section shall be effective except where the Commission, by regulation, shall otherwise provide as a result of a determination by it that modification is desirable from a fish management stand-point, in which event, the Commission's regulation shall prevail.

Any person violating the provisions of sections [71 and 72] 81 and 82 of this act shall, on conviction in the manner provided in chapter 14 of this act, be subject to a penalty of five dollars ($5.00) for each fish caught, killed or had in possession.

In addition to such penalty, the license of such person may be revoked for one year for the first offense, and two or more years for the second offense, at the discretion of the Commission.

APPROVED—The 10th day of August, A. D. 1965.

AN ACT

SB 924

Amending the act of May 28, 1915 (P. L. 596), entitled "An act requiring cities of the second class to establish a pension fund for employes of said cities, and regulating the administration and the payment of such pensions," conferring benefits of the act upon additional persons.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. Subsection (a) of section 4, act of May 28, 1915 (P. L. 596), entitled "An act requiring cities of the second class to establish a pension fund for employes of said cities, and regulating the administration and the payment of such pensions," amended August 14, 1959 (P. L. 727), is amended to read:

Section 4. (a) During the lifetime of the person, he or she shall be entitled to receive a pension from the fund set aside for the purpose, in the amount hereinafter provided. The pension shall be paid in monthly payments. If any pension be granted to a person who has not been a contributor to the pension fund as herein provided, during a period of twenty years, such person shall be required to pay unto the board of pensions monthly an amount equal to such amount as he or she would have been required to contribute had he or she contributed during such period as required by this act, until such time as his or her contribution shall have extended during a period of twenty years. Should any person be dismissed, for reasons other than misconduct, after having served as an employe for fifteen years or more but less than twenty years, or should any person leave his position in order to accept appointment to a board of viewers or election or appointment to any elective office in or for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, after having served as an employe for a period of at least two-thirds of twenty
