AN ACT

HB 1305

Amending the act of June 3, 1937 (P. L. 1225), entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals; and amending, revising, consolidating and changing the law relating thereto," providing for the tagging of legally taken wild turkeys and their removing and transporting; and providing penalties.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. Section 708, act of June 3, 1937 (P. L. 1225), known as "The Game Law," amended May 15, 1945 (P. L. 517), is amended to read:

Section 708. Tagging, Removing, Transporting, and Reporting Big Game and Tagging Wild Turkeys.—Each person killing a big game animal or a wild turkey found in a wild state shall immediately after removing the entrails, but in any event, within one hour, and before transporting or removing the carcass in any manner from where it was killed, [attach thereto] detach the big game tag [supplied with his hunting license, both parts of which shall be properly completed] or wild turkey tag from the license and attach it to the big game animal or wild turkey as the case may require. Both the big game tag and the big game kill report card shall be properly completed at the same time.

The portion supplied with his hunting license for reporting such big game killing shall be mailed to the commission at Harrisburg within five days following the close of the season for the animal killed.

If such animal or wild turkey has been lawfully killed by a person not required to secure a license, or by a person who has previously killed another legal big game animal, or by a person who has lost the tag supplied with his license, such person shall make and attach a tag within the time specified after such killing, bearing in plain English, his name, address, and, if holding a license, the license number, with the date, township if known, and county where such game was killed. On a similar tag or on a post card, such person shall within five days following the close of the season for the animal killed, mail to the commission at Harrisburg, a statement setting forth the information above, including the kind of animal, whether male or female, the dressed weight, actual or estimated, and if a male deer, the total number of points on both antlers.

Every failure to have said tag attached, or removing or transporting such animal or wild turkey in any manner, or failure to mail the big game kill report, as herein provided, shall subject the person so neglecting to the penalties provided in this article; and if the person responsible for such neglect to tag any such game cannot be located, each member of the camp or party shall be individually liable to such penalty.

Any game found in the possession of any person and not tagged as herein provided shall be forfeited to the Commonwealth to be disposed of as hereinafter provided and may be seized by any officer whose duty it is to enforce the game laws.

Section 2. Clause (f) of section 731 of the act, amended June 13, 1961 (P. L. 306), is amended to read:

Section 731. Penalties.—Any person violating any of the provisions of the sections of this article shall, upon conviction, be sentenced to pay the following fines and costs of prosecution for each offense:

* * *

(f) For failure to tag or mark any big game animal or wild turkey as required by the provisions of this article, ten dollars ($10); for failing to tag and for removing or transporting in any manner any big game animal or wild turkey which has not been tagged, as required by the provisions of this article, twenty-five dollars ($25) for each big game animal and fifteen dollars ($15) for each wild turkey; for failure to report the killing of a big game animal taken during the open season as required by the provisions of this article, five dollars ($5);

AN ACT

Amending the act of June 3, 1937 (P. L. 1225), entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals; and amending, revising, consolidating and changing the law relating thereto," prohibiting the transfer or reissue of antlerless deer licenses and tags.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. The first paragraph of subsection (c) of section 501, act of June 3, 1937 (P. L. 1225), known as "The Game Law," amended June 14, 1961 (P. L. 358), is amended to read:

Section 501. Open Seasons.—* * *

(c) Resident and Nonresident Hunters' Licenses and ¹Tags for Antlerless Deer.—If in any year the commission, by resolution, declares an open season for antlerless deer, it shall issue resident and nonresident hunters' licenses and tags for antlerless deer to hunt for or kill such deer, at a fee of one dollar fifteen cents under such rules and regulations governing the issuance of such licenses and tags as it may deem necessary to limit the number of persons who may hunt for such deer in any county of the Commonwealth, provided public notice of such action is given as hereinafter required: And provided, however, That no applications for antlerless deer licenses received from nonresidents shall be approved or licenses issued in advance of thirty days prior to the opening date of such antlerless deer season. Such licenses and tags
