

No. 252

AN ACT

HB 950

Exempting certain firemen, policemen and volunteer ambulance and rescue squad personnel from civil liability when rendering emergency care, first aid and rescue in the performance of their official duties except in certain instances.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. Any fireman, policeman or member of a volunteer ambulance or rescue squad who renders emergency care, first aid or rescue while in the performance of his official duties at the scene of an emergency, shall not be liable for any civil damages as a result of any acts or omissions in rendering the emergency care, first aid or rescue, except any acts or omissions intentionally designed to harm or any grossly negligent acts or omissions which result in harm to the person receiving the emergency care, first aid or rescue. In order for any fireman, policeman or member of a volunteer ambulance or rescue squad to receive the benefit of the exemption from civil liability provided for in this act, he must first have taken and successfully completed a standard first aid course recognized or approved by the American Red Cross and further he shall have a valid certification from the American Red Cross that he has successfully completed any necessary training or refresher courses.

Section 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

APPROVED—The 9th day of September, A. D. 1965.

AN ACT

HB 1018

Amending the act of June 24, 1939 (P. L. 872), entitled "An act to consolidate, amend and revise the penal laws of the Commonwealth," increasing the penalty for malicious use of telephones, and making unlawful certain suggestions, proposals or solicitations to engage in immoral acts.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. Section 414.1, act of June 24, 1939 (P. L. 872), known as "The Penal Code," added December 8, 1959 (P. L. 1714), is amended to read:

Section 414.1. Malicious Use of Telephones.—Whoever telephones another person and addresses to or about such other person any lewd, lascivious or indecent words, [or] language, suggestion or proposal, or solicitation to engage in fornication or any other immoral act, or whoever anonymously telephones another person repeatedly for the purpose of annoying, molesting or harassing such other person or his or her family, [shall be deemed] is guilty of [the] a misdemeanor [of being a disorderly person] and, upon conviction, shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500), [to which may be added imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months] or undergo imprisonment for not more than one (1) year, or both: Provided, That any offense committed by the use of a telephone, as herein set out, may be deemed to have been committed at either the place at which the telephone call or calls were made or at the place where the telephone call or calls were received.

APPROVED—The 9th day of September, A. D. 1965.
