

ing, or other place, public or private, in which bees, queen bees, wax, honey, hives, or appliances may be kept or stored. It shall be unlawful for any person to deny to such duly authorized officer or agent access to any such place or to hinder or resist the inspection of such premises.

Section 11. It shall be unlawful for any person to transport bees, hives, or appliances into this Commonwealth, unless the same shall be accompanied with a certificate of inspection signed by the chief apiary [adviser] inspector or corresponding inspection official of the State or county from which such bees are being transported. Such certificate shall certify that actual inspection of the bees was made within thirty days preceding the date of shipment, and that the bees, hives, and appliances contained in the shipment are free from bee diseases. It shall be the duty of any officer, agent, servant, or employe of any person, firm, or corporation, engaged in transportation, who shall receive a shipment of bees, consigned to a point within this Commonwealth and not having attached thereto a certificate as aforesaid, to immediately notify the Secretary of Agriculture, and to hold such shipment subject to his orders for a period of fifteen days.

Section 12. [Every person engaged in rearing queen bees and bees for sale or gift shall, on or before the first day of April of each year, make application in writing to the chief apiary adviser for the inspection and certification of his apiary or apiaries.] It shall be unlawful for any person to import any living insects belonging to the genus Apis from any foreign country (except Canada) for any purpose without written permission to be given only by the Secretary of Agriculture.

No. 261

AN ACT

HB 1280

Amending the act of June 3, 1937 (P. L. 1225), entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals; and amending, revising, consolidating and changing the law relating thereto," authorizing three-day nonresident hunting license to hunt upon regulated shooting grounds for applicants twelve or more years of age.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. The first paragraph of section 303.1, act of June 3, 1937 (P. L. 1225), known as "The Game Law," amended June 13, 1961 (P. L. 304), is amended to read:

Section 303.1. Three-Day Licenses to Nonresidents to Hunt on Regulated Shooting Grounds.—Every person, [sixteen (16)] twelve (12) years of age or upward, upon application in writing to the authorized agent, in such form as the commission may prescribe, and the presentation of proof that he or she is a nonresident of the Commonwealth but a citizen of the United States, and, in the case of naturalized foreign-born nonresidents, the production of such applicant's naturalization papers, or an alien nonresident who is also a nonresident of the United States and who furnishes satisfactory proof of his or her residence, shall, upon the payment to the issuing agent of three dollars ($3.00), for the use of the commission, and fifteen cents ($.15), for the use of the issuing agent, be entitled to the license, herein referred to as a "Three-Day Special Regulated Shooting Ground License," which shall be valid for a period of three (3) consecutive days, Sundays excluded, and shall entitle the holder thereof to hunt, take or kill, on lawfully operated regulated shooting grounds, all wild birds and wild animals which may be legally hunted, taken or killed in this Commonwealth on such grounds, and to participate in a shoot held thereon, under a regulated shooting grounds permit.
