No. 281

AN ACT

HB 1579

Amending the act of December 15, 1959 (P. L. 1779), entitled, as amended, "An act relating to fish, frogs, tadpoles and turtles; and amending, revising, consolidating and changing the law relating to fish in the inland waters and the boundary lakes and boundary rivers of the Commonwealth," authorizing the issuance of permits or licenses for camping, boat mooring and boat storage on commission owned or controlled lands and providing for charges for such permits and licenses.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. Subsection (g) of section 295, act of December 15, 1959 (P. L. 1779), known as "The Fish Law of 1959," is amended to read:

Section 295. Exchange or Sale.—* * *

(g) No camp site lease may be issued to any person, but camping, boat mooring and boat storage may be permitted on State Fish Commission owned or controlled lands, under such regulations as the Commission may establish. The Commission may issue permits and licenses for camping, boat mooring and boat storage and may charge such fees as the Commission deems reasonable. No camping shall be permitted on State hatchery properties.

No. 282

AN ACT

HB 1642

Authorizing incorporated towns to adopt and enforce zoning ordinances regulating the location, construction, and use of buildings, the size of courts and open spaces, the density of population, and the use of land.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. Grant of Power.—For the purpose of promoting health, safety, morals or the general welfare, councils of incorporated towns are hereby empowered to regulate and restrict the height, number of stories, and size of buildings and other structures, their construction, alteration, extension, repair, maintenance, and all facilities and services in or about such buildings and structures and percentage of lot that may be occupied, the size of yards, courts and other open spaces, the density of population, and the location and use of buildings, structures, and land for trade, industry, residence or other purposes, and may also establish and maintain building lines and set back building lines upon any or all public streets.

Section 2. Districts; Procedure.—(a) For any or all said purposes, the council may divide the town into districts, of such number, shape, and area as may be deemed best suited to carry out the purpose of this act. Within such districts it may regulate and restrict the erection, construction, reconstruction, alteration, repair or use of buildings, structures or land. All such regulations shall be uniform for each class or kind of buildings throughout each district, but the regulations in one district may differ from those in another district.

(b) The council shall provide by ordinance the manner in which the boundaries of such districts shall be determined and established and from time to time amended or changed. However, no such boundary shall become effective until after public hearing in relation thereto at
