

Section 1. The first two paragraphs of section 716, act of June 3, 1937 (P. L. 1225), known as "The Game Law," amended May 6, 1943 (P. L. 195), are amended to read:

Section 716. Buying and Selling Game.—Except as otherwise provided by this act, it is unlawful for any person, at any time, to buy, sell, or barter, or offer for sale or barter, or have in possession for sale or barter, any game, or parts thereof, no matter where such game has been killed, excepting deer or rabbits killed in another state or nation, or the carcasses or skins of raccoons and the skins of bears, no matter where killed, and other game legally killed and imported from another state or nation when tagged as herein required.

Except as otherwise provided by this act, it is unlawful for any person, at any time, to sell or barter, or offer for sale or barter, for human consumption, any species of game, or parts thereof, protected by this act or similar thereto, imported either dead or alive from another state or nation, except deer or rabbits or raccoons, unless the carton containing such birds or animals, or the individual carcasses, shall have attached a tag identifying the birds or animals in plain English, and giving the state or nation from which originally shipped. Before any such game may be offered for sale, there shall first have been attached to each bird or animal, by a representative of the commission, a metal seal, the cost of which is hereby fixed at five cents, which seal shall remain attached until the carcass is prepared, or finally cut up, for consumption.

AN ACT

HB 1756

Amending the act of June 23, 1931 (P. L. 932), entitled "An act relating to cities of the third class; and amending, revising and consolidating the law relating thereto," requiring that notice of the passage of any zoning ordinance or any amendment thereto, or any change in zoning classification be given to the Board of Assessment and Revision of Taxes of the county.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. Sections 4113 and 4126, act of June 23, 1931 (P. L.

932), known as "The Third Class City Code," reenacted and amended June 28, 1951 (P. L. 662), are amended to read:

Section 4113. Publication not Required; Filing.—Notwithstanding any provisions for fines or penalties therein, the zoning ordinance or any amendments thereto need not be published after passage. The zoning ordinance, together with a map or plan, shall be filed in the office of the recorder of deeds, as may be required by law. Council shall, immediately after the passage of any zoning ordinance or amendment thereto, give notice thereof to the Board of Assessment and Revision of Taxes of the county.

Section 4126. Board's Decision Upon Appeal; Disposition of Appeals and Exceptions.—The board shall decide each appeal within a reasonable time, and notice thereof shall forthwith be given to all parties in interest. The board's decision shall be immediately ¹ filed in its office and be a public record. In the exercise of its functions upon such appeals or upon exceptions, the board may, in conformity with the provisions of this article, reverse or affirm, wholly or partly, or modify the order, requirement, decision or determination appealed from, or may make such order, requirement, decision or determination as in its opinion ought to be made. Within sixty days after reaching any decision which makes any change in a zoning classification, and from which decision no appeal has been taken to the court of common pleas, the board shall give notice of such change to the Board of Assessment and Revision of Taxes of the county. If an appeal from a decision of the board has been taken to the court of common pleas the board shall, within ten days after the final disposition of such appeal, give notice of any change in a zoning classification as determined in such appeal.
