

932), known as "The Third Class City Code," reenacted and amended June 28, 1951 (P. L. 662), are amended to read:

Section 4113. Publication not Required; Filing.—Notwithstanding any provisions for fines or penalties therein, the zoning ordinance or any amendments thereto need not be published after passage. The zoning ordinance, together with a map or plan, shall be filed in the office of the recorder of deeds, as may be required by law. Council shall, immediately after the passage of any zoning ordinance or amendment thereto, give notice thereof to the Board of Assessment and Revision of Taxes of the county.

Section 4126. Board's Decision Upon Appeal; Disposition of Appeals and Exceptions.—The board shall decide each appeal within a reasonable time, and notice thereof shall forthwith be given to all parties in interest. The board's decision shall be immediately ¹ filed in its office and be a public record. In the exercise of its functions upon such appeals or upon exceptions, the board may, in conformity with the provisions of this article, reverse or affirm, wholly or partly, or modify the order, requirement, decision or determination appealed from, or may make such order, requirement, decision or determination as in its opinion ought to be made. Within sixty days after reaching any decision which makes any change in a zoning classification, and from which decision no appeal has been taken to the court of common pleas, the board shall give notice of such change to the Board of Assessment and Revision of Taxes of the county. If an appeal from a decision of the board has been taken to the court of common pleas the board shall, within ten days after the final disposition of such appeal, give notice of any change in a zoning classification as determined in such appeal.

AN ACT

SB 760

Amending the act of June 4, 1937 (P. L. 1625), entitled "An act providing for the creation, maintenance and operation of a county employes retirement system in counties of the third class; and imposing certain charges on counties," clarifying the provisions of existing law; granting retirement credit to certain persons taking leaves of absence; providing increases for certain retired employes and defining re-employment.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. Section 10, act of June 4, 1937 (P. L. 1625), entitled "An act providing for the creation, maintenance and operation of a county employes retirement system in counties of the third class; and imposing certain charges on counties," amended August 28, 1959 (P. L. 769) and December 16, 1959 (P. L. 1851), is reenacted and amended to read:

Section 10. Service Allowance.—In computing the length of service of a contributor for retirement purposes, full credit shall be given to each original member for each year of service rendered to the county prior to January first of the year the retirement system was established. This shall include the services of a county official whose compensation was in the form of fees collected by his office; and shall also include the services of employes paid directly by such county official out of such fees. Full credit shall also be given for each year of service of a contributor who was a per diem employe of the county for a period of at least five years prior to the time the system became effective and who averaged at least two hundred days of employment in each of such years. As soon as practicable, the retirement board shall issue to each original member a certificate certifying the aggregate length of his service prior to January first of the year retirement system was established. Such certificate shall be final and conclusive as to his prior service unless thereafter modified by the board upon application of the member. The retirement board may also give credit to any person who was a
