

No. 321

AN ACT

HB 1919

Reenacting and amending the title and act of August 8, 1963 (P. L. 585), entitled "An act imposing a temporary tax on real estate for public school purposes in school districts of the first class A for current expenses," making the tax permanent.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. The title and act of August 8, 1963 (P. L. 585), entitled "An act imposing a temporary tax on real estate for public school purposes in school districts of the first class A for current expenses," are reenacted and amended to read:

AN ACT

Imposing a [temporary] tax on real estate for public school purposes in school districts of the first class A for current expenses.

Section 1. The Board of Public Education in school districts of the first class A shall levy, annually, on or after the second Monday of November and before the first Monday of December next following, a tax, for the following fiscal year, of one mill on each dollar of the total assessment of all real property assessed and certified for taxation in the district.

Section 2. The taxes and penalties collected under the provisions of this act shall be used by the school district for general public school purposes.

Section 3. The tax authorized to be levied under the provisions of this act shall be in addition to any other taxes any school district of the first class A is empowered to levy and collect under any existing law.

Section 4. The taxes which are levied under the provisions of this act shall be collected at the same time in the same manner with like authority and subject to the same discounts and penalties as other real estate taxes for school purposes are collected.

Section 5. The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment, and shall continue in effect until [and including the thirty-first day of December, one thousand nine hundred sixty-five] repealed.

Section 2. The provisions of this reenacting and amending act shall take effect immediately.

APPROVED—The 21st day of October, A. D. 1965.
