AN ACT

HB 505

Amending the act of June 21, 1939 (P. L. 566), entitled "An act defining the liability of an employer to pay damages for occupational disease contracted by an employe arising out of and in the course of employment; establishing an elective schedule of compensation; providing procedure for the determination of liability and compensation thereunder; imposing duties on the Department of Labor and Industry, the Workmen's Compensation Board, Workmen's Compensation Referees, and deans of medical schools; creating a medical board to determine controverted medical issues; establishing an Occupational Disease Fund in custody of the State Workmen's Insurance Board; imposing upon the Commonwealth a part of the compensation payable for certain occupational diseases; making an appropriation; and prescribing penalties," further defining diseases of fire fighters within the act, and fixing liability for compensation thereunder on the Commonwealth.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. Clause (o) of section 108, act of June 21, 1939 (P. L. 566), known as "The Pennsylvania Occupational Disease Act," added December 10, 1959 (P. L. 1746), is amended to read:

Section 108. The term "occupational disease," as used in this act, shall mean only the following diseases:

* * *

(o) Diseases of the heart and lungs, resulting in either temporary or permanent total or partial disability or death, after four years or more of service in [the full time salaried occupation of] fire fighting for the benefit or safety of the public, caused by extreme over-exertion in times of stress or danger or by exposure to heat, smoke, fumes or gases, arising directly out of the employment of any such firemen.

The Commonwealth shall pay the full amount of compensation for disability under this clause.

APPROVED—The 17th day of December, A. D. 1965.
