

Section 1. Section 4, act of July 17, 1961 (P. L. 776), known as the "Pennsylvania Fair Educational Opportunities Act," is amended by adding, after subsection (a), a new subsection to read:

Section 4. Unfair Educational Practices.—

* * *

(aa) It shall be an unfair educational practice for a religious educational institution—

(1) To exclude or limit, or otherwise discriminate, because of race, color, ancestry or national origin, against any student or students seeking admission as students to such institutions: Provided, That it shall not be unfair educational practice for any religious educational institution to use criteria other than race, color, ancestry or national origin in the admission of students.

(2) To make any written or oral inquiry prior to admission concerning or designed to elicit information as to the race, color, ancestry or national origin of a student seeking admission to such institution.

(3) To expel, suspend, punish, deny facilities or otherwise discriminate against any student because of race, color, ancestry or national origin.

(4) To penalize or discriminate against any individual because he has initiated, testified, participated or assisted in any proceedings under this act.

AN ACT

SB 355

Amending the act of June 3, 1937 (P. L. 1333), entitled "An act concerning elections, including general, municipal, special and primary elections, the nomination of candidates, primary and election expenses and election contests; creating and defining membership of county boards of elections; imposing duties upon the Secretary of the Commonwealth, courts, county boards of elections, county commissioners; imposing penalties for violation of the act, and codifying, revising and consolidating the laws relating thereto; and repealing certain acts and parts of acts relating to elections," further providing for the purchase, leasing or renting, installing and use of voting machines and for the payment thereof, and further providing for temporary use of voting machines in certain cases.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. Subsection (a) of section 305, act of June 3, 1937 (P. L. 1333), known as the "Pennsylvania Election Code," amended August 1, 1941 (P. L. 672), is amended to read:

Section 305. Expenses of County Boards and of Primaries and Elections to Be Paid by County; Expenses of Special Elections; Boards to Be Provided with Offices.—

(a) The county commissioners or other appropriating authorities of the county shall appropriate annually, and from time to time, to the county board of elections of such county, the funds that shall be necessary for the maintenance and operation of the board and for the conduct of primaries and elections in such county, including the payment of the compensation of the employes of the board, custodians, election officers, and other assistants and employes herein provided for, and the fees of witnesses as herein provided; for the purchase or printing, under contracts made by the board, of all ballots and other primary and election supplies required by this act, or which the board shall consider necessary to carry out the provisions of this act; for the purchase, under contracts made by the board, and maintenance, of voting machines, when adopted as herein provided, and of all other primary and election equipment required by this act, or which the board shall consider necessary to carry out the provisions of this act; for the publication of notices authorized by this act, under contracts made by the board, and for all other necessary expenses hereunder: Provided, however, That bonds or other evidences of indebtedness, payable not later than [ten] thirty years from their dates of issuance, may be issued by the county commissioners or other appropriating authorities of the county in accordance with the provisions of law relating to the increase of indebtedness of such county, to meet all or any part of the cost of voting machines.

1. The county shall be liable for the expenses of holding special elections for any city, borough, township, school district or other municipality or incorporated district contained therein, which is held on the day of any general, municipal or primary election, and on any special question which is required by law to be, or which is, at the discretion of the county board, as hereinafter provided, printed on the regular ballot after the list of the candidates, or on the same voting machine as the list of candidates.

2. Any city, borough, township, school district or other municipality or incorporated district contained in any county, holding a special election, as authorized by law, on the question of increase of indebtedness or any other question to be voted on by the electors of such subdivision, which special election is held on the day of any general, municipal or primary election and which is required by law to be conducted or at the discretion of the county board, as hereinafter provided, is conducted by special ballots for such question, shall be liable to the county for the expenses necessarily incurred in the printing of such special ballots.

3. If any other day than the day of any general, municipal or primary election be fixed by the corporate authorities of any municipality, school district or incorporated district for the holding of a special election on the question of increase of indebtedness or any other question, as authorized by law, such municipality, school district or incorporated district shall be liable for and pay the entire expense of holding such election, including the cost of printing ballots and supplies, pay of election officers, the rental of polling places, and the cost of canvassing and computing the votes cast.

Section 2. Subsection (c) of section 1104 of the act is amended to read:

Section 1104. Installation of Voting Machines.—* * *

(c) If voting machines are installed gradually, they [shall] may be introduced, in the case of counties, in alphabetical order—by cities, boroughs and townships, so that they will first be used in the city, borough or township, the name of which is first in alphabetical order, and then in the city, borough or township, the name of which is next in alphabetical order, and so on. In cities, boroughs and townships, they shall be introduced in numerical or alphabetical order by wards and election districts, if any, so that they will first be used in the first election district of the first ward, and then in the second election district of the first ward, and so on. After they have been installed in all the election districts in the first ward, they [shall] may be installed, in the same manner, in the second ward, then in the third ward, and so on. In any event, the machines shall be installed as rapidly as practicable after the electors have voted in favor of them.

If voting machines are installed gradually they may also be introduced in the case of counties by legislative districts with priority in installation being given to municipalities therein in the order of their descending population rank according to the last official decennial census. Within such municipality the voting machines shall be introduced in numerical order by wards and election districts, if any, so that they will first be used in the first election district of the first ward and then in the second election district of the first ward and so on. After they have been installed in all the election districts in the first ward, they shall be installed in the same manner in the second ward, then in the third ward, and so on.

Section 3. The act is amended by adding after section 1104, a new section to read:

Section 1104.1. Temporary Use of Approved Voting Machines in Certain Cases.—If the question hereinbefore provided shall have been submitted to the qualified electors of the county, and the majority of the electors voting thereon shall have voted favorably thereon, and if the county election board has made a gradual installation of voting machines approved by the Secretary of the Commonwealth, then such county board of elections may, upon their own motion, authorize the temporary installation of voting machines approved by the Secretary of the Commonwealth for primaries and elections in one or more election districts of the county and the use of such voting machines shall be as valid for all purposes as if the voting machines had been permanently installed.

Section 4. Section 1108 of the act is amended to read:

Section 1108. Payment for Machines.—The county commissioners, or such other authority as levies the taxes for county purposes of any county which adopts voting machines, or of any county in which a city, borough or township is located which adopts voting machines, shall, upon the purchase thereof, provide for payment therefor by the county: Provided, however, That bonds or other evidences of indebtedness, payable not later than [ten] thirty years from their dates of issuance, may be issued in accordance with the provisions of law relating to the increase of indebtedness of counties, to meet all or any part of the cost of the voting machines.

Section 5. This act shall take effect immediately.
