

departments of the State Government. Said materials and supplies to be furnished upon the requisition of the prothonotaries of the said court. And to facilitate the labors of the judges of the Superior Court, and to reimburse them for expenses incurred in the discharge of their duties or attendant upon the execution of the duties of the office, each of the said judges is authorized to pay such expenses and to employ such briefers, investigators, stenographers, typewriters, and clerks, as in his judgment may be necessary, but in no case shall such expense, together with the compensation of such briefers, investigators, stenographers, typewriters, and clerks, exceed in any one year the sum of [thirty-five] sixty-five hundred dollars for any one judge. The expenses and compensation herein provided for shall be paid by the judge incurring the same, and shall be repaid to him monthly, by the State Treasurer, upon warrant of the Auditor General, after the filing by any judge of a certificate of the amount paid by him during the preceding month.

Section 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

APPROVED—The 27th day of December, A. D. 1965.

SB 1150

To provide for an additional law judge of the court of common pleas in the second district.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. In addition to the judges provided for in the act of January 8, 1952 (P. L. 1844), entitled "An act to designate the several judicial districts of the Commonwealth, as required by the Constitution, and to provide for the election and commissioning of judges learned in the law for the said districts," an additional law judge is hereby authorized and provided for the court of common pleas of the second judicial district, who shall possess the same qualifications which are required by the Constitution and laws for the president judge of the court of common pleas of the district and who shall hold his office for a like term and by the same tenure and shall have the same power, authority and jurisdiction and shall be subject to the same duties, restrictions and penalties and shall receive the same compensation provided for by law for judges learned in the law as if the same office had been established in the time of and subject to the provisions of the act of June 1, 1956 (P. L. 1959), entitled "An act fixing the salaries and compensation of the Chief Justice and judges of the Supreme Court, the President Judge and judges of the Superior Court, the judges of the courts of common pleas, the judges of the orphans' courts, the judges of the Municipal Court of Philadelphia and the judges of the County Court and Juvenile Court of Allegheny County, certain associate judges not learned in the law, certain state officers, and the salary and expenses of the members of the General Assembly, and repealing certain inconsistent acts."

Section 2. At the next municipal election in November, 1967, the qualified electors of the second judicial district shall elect, in the same manner prescribed by law for the election of the president judge of the court of common pleas of the district, a competent person learned in the law to serve as additional law judge of the court of common pleas of the second judicial district from the first Monday in January, 1968, for a term of ten years. Vacancies in the office hereby created whether caused by death, resignation, expiration of term or otherwise shall be filled in the same manner as is required by law in case of a similar vacancy in the office of president judge of the court.

Section 3. The Governor may appoint one competent person, learned in the law, as additional law judge of the court of common pleas of the second judicial district to serve until the first Monday of January, 1968.

Section 4. This act shall take effect January 1, 1966.

APPROVED—The 27th day of December, A. D. 1965.
