AN ACT

SB 358

To provide for an additional law judge of the court of common pleas in the seventh judicial district.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. In addition to the judges provided for in the act of January 8, 1952 (P. L. 1844), entitled "An act to designate the several judicial districts of the Commonwealth, as required by the Constitution, and to provide for the election and commissioning of judges learned in the law for the said districts," an additional law judge is hereby authorized and provided for the court of common pleas of the seventh judicial district, who shall possess the same qualifications which are required by the Constitution and laws for the president judge of the court of common pleas of the district and who shall hold his office for a like term and by the same tenure and shall have the same power, authority and jurisdiction and shall be subject to the same duties, restrictions and penalties and shall receive the same compensation provided for by law for judges learned in the law as if the same office had been established in the time of and subject to the provisions of the act of June 1, 1956 (P. L. 1959), entitled "An act fixing the salaries and compensation of the Chief Justice and judges of the Supreme Court, the President Judge and judges of the Superior Court, the judges of the courts of common pleas, the judges of the orphans' courts, the judges of the Municipal Court of Philadelphia and the judges of the County Court and Juvenile Court of Allegheny County, certain associate judges not learned in the law, certain state officers, and the salary and expenses of the members of the General Assembly, and repealing certain inconsistent acts.”

Section 2. At the next municipal election in November, 1967, the qualified electors of the seventh judicial district shall elect, in the same manner prescribed by law for the election of the president judge of the court of common pleas of the district, a competent person learned in the law to serve as additional law judge of the court of common pleas of the seventh judicial district from the first Monday in January, 1968, for a term of ten years. Vacancies in the office hereby created whether caused by death, resignation, expiration of term or otherwise shall be filled in the same manner as is required by law in case of a similar vacancy in the office of president judge of the court.

Section 3. The Governor may appoint a competent person, learned in the law, as additional law judge of the court of common pleas of the seventh judicial district to serve until the first Monday of January, 1968.

APPROVED—The 25th day of January, A. D. 1966.

AN ACT

SB 1131

Amending the act of March 10, 1949 (P. L. 30), entitled “An act relating to the public school system, including certain provisions applicable as well to private and parochial schools; amending, revising, consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto,” providing that certain districts that do not avail themselves of the services of the county superintendent shall not be required to share in the cost of the office and for certain audits by accountants.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. Section 1091, act of March 10, 1949 (P. L. 30), known as the “Public School Code of 1949,” amended July 29, 1965 (Act No. 152) (P. L. 262), is amended to read:

Section 1091. Services Provided Through Office of County Superintendent.—(a) (1) Joint school systems operated by school districts of the third or fourth class that employ district superintendents for the joint school systems, (2) union and merged districts, (3) except as otherwise provided in subsection (c) of section 901, districts that were under the supervision of the county superintendent on the first Monday of
