

lot number and the month and year when placed thereon, or, in the case of articles of food being stored in bulk, the month and year of original storage shall be marked upon the doors or walls of the rooms in which the same are stored, but each article must show its lot numbers] in accordance with rules and regulations promulgated by the department:

Provided, That food stored in a locker plant when placed in individual lockers, cabinets, boxes, baskets, or other receptacles, for home or personal use only and not for the purpose of sale, may not be required to be so stamped or marked.

Section 10. Length of Storage Period.—

No person or corporation shall keep or permit to remain in any cold storage warehouse or locker plant any article of food beyond the time when it is sound and wholesome and fit to remain in storage. If any article of food is found to be fit for immediate consumption but unfit for further storage, such article of food shall at once be removed from storage and not again stored. [No article of food shall be kept or permitted to remain in any cold storage warehouse or warehouses for a longer aggregate period than twenty-four (24) calendar months, except by order of the department. Upon evidence satisfactory to the department that the food is sound and wholesome and fit for further storage, the department may, in its discretion, grant an extension of the storage period.] The department may, in its discretion, at any time, notwithstanding the period of storage, cause any article of food to be examined to ascertain if the food is sound and wholesome and fit for further storage.
