

The Statutes at Large of Pennsylvania.

CHAPTER MDCCV.

A SUPPLEMENT TO THE ACT ENTITLED "AN ACT TO ENABLE THE GOVERNOR OF THIS COMMONWEALTH TO INCORPORATE A COMPANY FOR THE PURPOSE OF PROMOTING THE CULTIVATION OF VINES AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES THEREIN MENTIONED."

Whereas in and by the act entitled "An act to enable the governor of this commonwealth to incorporate a company for the purpose of promoting the cultivation of vines and for other purposes therein mentioned," Samuel Miles, Tench Francis, John Swanwick, Timothy Pickering and Israel Whelen were nominated and duly appointed commissioners to do and perform the several duties therein mentioned and set forth. And whereas the said commissioners did not, in conformity to the act aforesaid on or before the twentieth day of April, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-three, procure a book for the purpose of opening the subscription to the stock of the said company, nor give public notice in the newspapers of the time and place when and where the said subscription would be opened for the purpose of receiving subscriptions to the stock of the said company. And whereas it is expedient that other commissioners be appointed, and that another time be fixed for the said commissioners to meet and open the said subscription to the stock of the said company. Therefore:

[Section I.] (Section I. P. L.) Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That Samuel Miles, John Swanwick, Walter Stewart, John Fry, Israel Whelen and Benjamin Barton be and they are hereby appointed commissioners to do, execute and perform all and singular the several duties and services enjoined and required in and by the act to which this is a supplement. That is to say, the said commissioners herein named and appointed may, on or before the first day of September next, procure a book and open the subscription to the stock of the said company, in manner and form as in and by the said recited act to which this is a supplement is enjoined and required, and to do, execute and perform all and singular the matters and things touching the duties and services of commissioners as therein mentioned, set forth and required.
