CHAPTER MDCCXLIX.

AN ACT FOR ERECTING A CERTAIN PART OF LUZERNE COUNTY INTO A SEPARATE ELECTION DISTRICT.

Whereas it hath been represented to the legislature that it would be of great convenience to the inhabitants of that part of Luzerne county, comprised within the bounds hereinafter mentioned that a separate election district should be erected therein

[Section I.] (Section I, P. L.) Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the part of Luzerne county, contained within the following bounds, viz: beginning on the north line of the state at the corner of Northampton and Luzerne counties; thence west on a straight line until it meets the stream called Wappasena; thence southwardly, up said stream to the head thereof; thence continuing a south course to the distance of twenty miles from the York line; thence east, to the line of Northampton county; thence north on said line, to the place of beginning; shall be, and the same is hereby, erected into a separate election district; and the inhabitants residing within the said district shall hold their annual elections hereafter, at the times and in the manner prescribed by law, at the house now occupied by Horatio Strong, in the said district.
