CHAPTER MDCCLXIX.

AN ACT TO ENABLE RICHARD THOMAS, SURVIVING EXECUTOR OF THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF WILLIAM LINDSEY, DECEASED, TO CONVEY THE REAL ESTATE OF THE DECEDENT.

Whereas William Lindsey, late of the township of Uwchlan, in the county of Chester, deceased, did, by his last will and testament, duly registered in the county aforesaid, nominate and appoint Richard Thomas and George Thomas, both of the township of West Whiteland, and county aforesaid, executors thereof, and did authorize and direct them to sell all his real estate, situate in the townships of Uwchlan and Pikeland, in the county aforesaid. And whereas Richard Thomas, one of the executors aforementioned, hath represented that the said executors did, in pursuance of the directions of the aforesaid last will and testament, make sale of the said estate, and agreed with the purchaser to execute a deed of conveyance in fee simple, on condition of certain payments thereafter to be made, and it is moreover represented that George Thomas, one of the executors aforesaid, is since deceased, and the deeds are not executed, and doubts have arisen of the power of the survivor to make an efficient title to the purchaser of the said lands. Therefore:

[Section I.] (Section I, P. L.) Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That Richard Thomas, surviving executor of the last will and testament of William Lindsey, late of Uwchlan, in the county of Chester, deceased, be, and he is hereby, authorized and empowered to execute a deed or deeds, in fee simple or otherwise, to convey all the right, title and estate of William Lindsey in the lands aforesaid, in as full and ample a manner as could have been done, if both the executors were now living.

Passed April 22, 1794. Recorded L. B. No. 5, p. 313.
