AN ACT FOR THE RELIEF OF ANN RUSSEL.

Whereas Ann Russel has represented to the legislature, that in the beginning of the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-two, she lost a new loan certificate, number thirteen thousand seven hundred and sixty-nine, bearing date the first day of January, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven, issued in the name of John Chew Thomas, for the sum of one hundred and twenty-nine pounds two shillings and nine pence, which she has reason to believe has been destroyed, as she soon after left notice of her loss at the office of the comptroller general, and also advertised it in Dunlap's American Advertiser, without success:

And whereas it appears to the legislature, by a certification from the comptroller general, that the said certificate has never been offered for redemption or exchange, and the said Ann Russel is ready to indemnify the commonwealth against the same:

[Section I.] (Section I, P. L.) Be it therefore enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That upon sufficient security being given to the governor by Ann Russel, to indemnify this commonwealth against a certain new loan certificate, number thirteen thousand seven hundred and sixty-nine, bearing date the first day of January, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven, issued in the name of John Chew Thomas, for the sum of one hundred and twenty-nine pounds two shillings and nine pence, and which the said Ann has since lost, and has reason to believe is destroyed, the state treasurer shall transfer upon the books of the treasury of the United States, to the said Ann Russel, an amount of the stock of the United States, the property of this commonwealth, equivalent to the said new loan certificate lost by the said Ann Russel.

Passed March 31, 1795. Recorded L. B. No. 5, p. 422, etc.

AN ACT TO ASCERTAIN THE BOUNDARY LINES OF A CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND IN YORK COUNTY, CALLED CARROL'S DELIGHT.

Whereas it hath been represented to the legislature, by the petition of sundry inhabitants of York county, that a tract of land, called Carrol's Delight, situate in Hamilton's ban and Franklin townships, in the county aforesaid, hath been surveyed and patented agreeably to the laws of the state (formerly the province) of Maryland, before the boundary line of this state, and that of Maryland, was finally ascertained:

And whereas none of the lines of the said tract are marked, or any corner fully known, except the beginning or bounding corner, a law is prayed for to ascertain the same, which appears just and right. Therefore:

[Section I.] (Section I, P. L.) Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the surveyor general of this commonwealth be authorized, and he is hereby required, at the proper charge and expense of the person or persons applying, to issue his order to one or more of the deputy surveyors in the county of York, not living in the said tract or adjoining the same, to survey the tract of land situate in Hamilton's ban and Franklin townships, in the county aforesaid, called and known by the name of Carrol's Delight, agreeably to the original survey, as described in the patent, making the usual allowance for
