

CHAPTER MMLX.

AN ACT TO ERECT AND ALTER CERTAIN ELECTION DISTRICTS
WITHIN THIS COMMONWEALTH.

[Section I.] (Section I, P. L.) Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this act, the electors of the districts composed of the township of Fermanagh and Milford, in the county of Mifflin, shall hold their elections at the public school-house in Mifflintown, anything in any law contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

[Section II.] (Section II, P. L.) And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That, from and after the passing of this act, the township of Salt Lick, in the county of Fayette, shall be, and the same is hereby, erected into a separate election district; and the electors thereof shall hold their general elections at the house now occupied by Andrew Trapp, Esquire, in said township, to be called the sixth district, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

[Section III.] (Section III, P. L.) And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That so much of the county of Allegheny as is hereafter described, viz., beginning on the line dividing Elder's and Conningham's districts of depreciation land, five miles north of the mouth of Bull creek, being the southeast corner of Middlesex township; thence west twenty miles to the west side of Alexander's district of depreciation land, thence along the west line to the line dividing the depreciation and donation lands; thence east along the last mentioned line to the line dividing Elder's and Cunningham's districts aforesaid; thence south to the place of beginning, shall be a separate election district, and the electors thereof shall hold their elections at the house now occupied by Andrew M'Clure, in said district.
