CHAPTER MMCCCXXXIII.

AN ACT APPOINTING FOUR TRUSTEES, IN ADDITION TO THOSE HERETOFORE APPOINTED FOR THE COUNTY OF BEAVER, AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES.

Whereas by an act passed the twelfth of March, one thousand eight hundred,⁽¹⁾ there was granted for the use of an academy, or public school in Beavertown, five hundred acres of land, and three persons therein mentioned, appointed to hold the same in trust for the purpose aforesaid, and no provision was made by the said act, authorizing said trustees, to farm-let, lease, or otherwise dispose of said land, or to complete the intention of the legislature, in erecting a suitable building for an academy in said town: Therefore,

Section I. (Section I, P. L.) Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That John Lawrence, Esq., Guion Grier, James Alexander and Samuel Johnson, be, and they are hereby appointed trustees for the land granted by an act passed the twelfth of March, one thousand eight hundred,⁽¹⁾ for the use of an academy in Beavertown, which trustees, together with those appointed under the act aforesaid, or a majority of them, shall have power to farmlet, lease, or otherwise dispose of said land, for any term not exceeding fifteen years from and after the passing of this act, with all other powers vested by the act aforesaid, in the trustees of Beaver county.

Section II. (Section II, P. L.) And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That said trustees or a majority of them, are hereby empowered to erect or cause to be erected, a suitable building on one of the public squares, in the said town of Beaver for an academy, and to receive any grant or grants of land, or any other less estate, which have or may be made or given to them, or the former trustees for the use or advantage of said academy, and to take to themselves in fee simple, or otherwise, any conveyance or assurance, in trust for the same, and to ask or demand, sue for, and recover all such sum or sums of money, as may have at any time been or may be hereafter subscribed, for the use of the said academy, and also to apply all the proceeds, rents and issues arising from the grant of land aforesaid, for the use of said institution.

Section III. (Section III, P. L.) And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said trustees and every of them, shall give bond with two sufficient sureties, for the use of said seminary, to the commissioners of the county, and their successors in the sum of six hundred dollars, for the faithful performance of the duties enjoined on them by this act. And moreover, once in every year, exhibit their accounts to the grand jury of the county, for their inspection and approbation.

Approved February 21st, 1803. Recorded L. B. No. 8, p. 232.
