

CHAPTER MMCCXXLI.

AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE SURVIVING COMMISSIONERS NAMED IN CERTAIN COMMISSIONS OF BANKRUPTCY, TO PROCEED IN THE EXECUTION OF THE SAID COMMISSIONS, AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES THEREIN MENTIONED.

Section I. (Section I, P. L.) Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful, for the surviving commissioners or commissioner in any commission of bankruptcy, which has been issued by the executive authority of this commonwealth, to proceed in the execution of all such matters and things, as may remain to be done and executed, in relation to such commission of bankruptcy; and such surviving commissioners or commissioner as the case may be, shall have and possess the same powers, and be subject to the same duties, as were originally granted to and enjoined on the whole of the commissioners, in such commission named.

Section II. (Section II, P. L.) And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in all cases where by reason of death, inability or absence from the state, there shall remain no commissioners authorized to act in regard to the estate of any person, who has heretofore been declared a bankrupt, under the authority of this commonwealth, it shall be lawful for the governor from time to time, as occasion may require, to issue a new commission, directed to any number of commissioners therein named, not exceeding three, which commissioners so to be appointed or the major part of them, shall have similar powers, and perform like duties, as the commissioners originally appointed in such cases respectively possessed, and were authorized to perform.
