CHAPTER LIII.

An ACT authorising Joseph Potts and Joseph Thomas, administrators of Martha Potts, deceased, to sell and convey a certain messuage and lot of land, in the township of Plymouth, and county of Montgomery.

WHEREAS it has been represented to the legislature, that Zebulon Potts, late of the county of Montgomery, deceased, was in his life time lawfully seized in his demesne, as of fee, of and in a considerable real estate, in the township of Plymouth, and county aforesaid, and by his last will and testament did give and bequeath unto his wife Martha Potts, all his real estate during her natural life, with full power and authority to sell and convey the same, or any part thereof, and to execute sufficient deeds for the same; and that after her decease the residue should be equally divided among all his children. And whereas it has been also represented to the legislature, that the said Martha Potts has since deceased intestate, leaving a portion of the said real estate unsold. And whereas it is further represented to the legislature, by the administrators to the said Martha Potts, deceased, by their petition, that it would be much to the advantage of the children and heirs of the said Zebulon Potts, that the residue of the said real estate should be sold for their benefit: Therefore,

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That

Joseph Potts and Joseph Thomas, administrators to the estate of Martha Potts, late of the township of Plymouth, and county of Montgomery, deceased, be, and they are hereby authorized to sell and convey, in fee simple, a certain messuage and tract, or piece of land, situate in the township of Plymouth aforesaid, containing seventeen acres, more or less, adjoining lands of David Lukins, William Shepherd and others, being a part of the real estate of Zebulon Potts, late of the township of Plymouth aforesaid, deceased; which conveyance shall
