CHAPTER CI.

An ACT for the Relief of Nicholas Reem.

WHEREAS it appears that Nicholas Reem (alias Nicholas Rheam) of Northumberland county, so early as the year one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, did enlist in the late revolutionary army for three years, or during the war, and continued therein as serjeant until some time in the year one thousand seven hundred and eighty-one, when he was discharged by reason of wounds received in the service, which disabled him from longer longer serving his country in a military capacity: And whereas the said Nicholas, presuming on the justice of his claim, has petitioned the legislature to grant him a share of donation-land; and inasmuch as it appears both equitable and just, that the soldier, who, thro' the adverse fate of war was prevented from serving to the end thereof by wounds, honorably received, is equally entitled to the rewards intended by a grateful country, for those who more fortunately survived that glorious and all-important service: Therefore,

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the officers of the land-office be, and they are hereby directed and required, to grant a patent to Nicholas Reem (alias Nicholas Rheam) his heirs and assigns, for such share of donation-land to which a serjeant is entitled who served in the line of this state in the armies of the United States, to the end of the late revolutionary war.

Donation lands

Rheam.
