CHAPTER XXI.

An ACT for the Relief of Thomas Cox.

WHEREAS it appears that Thomas Cox of the county of Bucks enlisted in the service of his country in the beginning of the year, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-seven, and that he received a wound in the thigh at the battle of Germantown, by which he has been rendered unable to support himself; it further appears that he continued in said service until the year one thousand seven hundred and eighty-one, when he was discharged: Therefore,

SECTION I. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same,

That the sum of forty dollars, be, and the same is hereby granted to Thomas Cox, to be paid to him or his lawful attorney, immediately after the passing of this act on a warrant drawn by the Governor on the State-treasurer, and that an annuity of forty dollars be granted for the use of the said Thomas Cox, for and during his natural life, to be paid to Samuel Johnson Esquire, of the township of Buckingham, county of Bucks, his executors or administrators, or his or their lawful attorney, to commence from the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and eight, half-yearly on warrants drawn by the Governor on the State-treasurer, which annuity shall be expended by the said Samuel Johnson, his executors or administrators, in providing cloathing, diet or other necessaries for the said Thomas Cox; and it shall be the duty of the said Samuel Johnson, his executors or administrators to make an annual return to the orphans court of

Forty dollars and an annuity of 40 dollars granted to Thomas Cox.

Bucks county, on oath or affirmation of the manner in which he or they have executed the trust in him or them, confided by this act.
