

strictions and penalties, and shall receive the same compensation, provided for by law for judges learned in the law as if the said office had been established at the time of and subject to the provisions of an act entitled "An act to fix the salaries of the judges of the Supreme Court, the judges of the Superior Court, the judges of the courts of common pleas and the judges of the orphans' courts," approved the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws, seven hundred eight), and its supplements and amendments.

Section 2. At the next municipal election after the passage of the act the qualified electors of the said Fifty-third judicial district shall elect, in the same manner prescribed by law for the election of president judge, a competent person learned in the law to serve as said additional law judge in said district from the first Monday in January, Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and twenty-two, for a term of ten years. Vacancies in the office hereby created whether caused by death, resignation, expiration of term, or otherwise, shall be filled in the same manner as is required by law in case of a similar vacancy in the office of president judge.

Section 3. The judge in said district whose commission shall first expire shall be the president judge thereof, except where the president judge shall be re-elected, in which case he shall continue to be president judge.

Section 4. The Governor is hereby authorized, by and with consent of the Senate, to appoint one competent person learned in the law as such additional law judge of the said Fifty-third judicial district, to serve until the first Monday in January succeeding the next municipal election.
